D'ANNUNZIO ENGAGES IN FRESH ADVENTURE ON DALMATIAN COAST

Goes With Troops From Fiume and Lands at Zara, From Where He is Expected to Proceed to Other Ports; Movements Observed

Trieste, Nov. 15.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, who left Fiume Thursday night on a new expedition, has landed at Zara, on the Dalmatian coast, according to news received here late last night.

Last night d'Annunzio made a triumphant entry into Zara, receiving an enthusiastic welcome from the Italians, who had been awaiting his arrival. He arrived from Fiume in the early morning darkness. The Italian torpedo boat Nullo followed the other warships of his fleet. Six hundred troops were aboard, including Arditti and also his complete staff.

D'Annunzio is expected to continue his expedition to other Dalmatian ports.

Paris, Nov. 15.—Gabriele d'Annunzio, the insurgent Italian commander of Fiume, is engaged in another adventure along the Dalmatian coast, according to advices which have reached the Peace Conference here. He sailed from Fiume on the Italian torpedo boat Nullo, accompanied by a steamship carrying 300 shock troops, the reports state.

Movements Watched.
He was said to have been followed by an Italian warship which was merely observing his movements. The debarkation point is not known but it is thought likely that Zara has been selected. It is not believed he would go to Spalato, which is garrisoned by Jugo-Slavs, with the surrounding waters controlled by Rear-Admiral Andrews of the United States navy. Advices to the American peace delegation came from Vice-Consul O'Hara at Trieste. He forwarded the report there that d'Annunzio had left Fiume on the Nullo and had effected a landing on the Dalmatian coast line.

Italian Election.
Importance is attached in Peace Conference circles to d'Annunzio's movement because Sunday is election day in Italy, with Fiume the chief issue. It is generally thought that he is seeking to carry out a spectacular operation to strengthen the Fiume party, which is reported in Paris to have lost considerable ground in Italy during the past three weeks. The Italian navy was said to be wavering perceptibly in its support of d'Annunzio.

STILL NO TRACE OF LAKE STEAMSHIP

S.S. John Owen, Missing in Lake Superior, Not Traced as Yet

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 15.—As the hours passed without word from the lake steamship John Owen, marine men here clung to the hope that the vessel had put into one of the numerous harbors between Sault Ste. Marie and Keweenaw Point and ridden out the storm that for three days has lashed Lake Superior into a sea of mountainous waves accompanied by a blinding snowstorm.

Vessels on the lake were searching for the Owen by wireless, while they kept a sharp watch for wreckage. Surf boats from the Eagle Harbor coastguard station were dispatched to Manitowish Island this morning in an attempt to locate and identify wreckage reported in that vicinity by the steamship Alpin.

The Owen carried a crew of twenty and was last sighted on Wednesday.

MASS MEETINGS CALLED IN BERLIN

Majority Socialists Oppose Move for Hohenzollern and Hindenburg

Declare Police Authorities Must Be Roused From Their Sleep

Berlin, Nov. 15.—Three mass meetings have been called for Sunday by the Majority Socialists for the purpose, the announcement states, of "rousing the police authorities from their sleep." It is declared an attempt is being made to use the presence in Berlin of Field Marshal von Hindenburg as "a fire on which the German national soup can be brought to a boil."

A dispatch from Berlin yesterday evening ran in part as follows: Pan-German students to-day re- (Concluded on page 4.)

SAYS GIRLS USE TOO MUCH POWDER

Speaker at Y. W. C. A. Convention at Hamilton Gives Views

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 15.—The use of paint and powder by girls and young women, so prevalent to-day, was deprecated by Miss E. J. F. Jones at to-day's session of the Y. W. C. A. Convention here.

"If they realized that a few years of it means tough, wrinkled skin, I do not think they would do it," she said. She also scored extravagance in dress.

Discussion.
Addresses, discussions and papers made up the morning's programme of the convention, the features being the Association as a social factor in boarding homes, cafeterias and lunch rooms, extension work and health education.

Miss Mabel Jamieson, of the Dominion Council, spoke on "To-day's Challenge to the Association." She felt there were many groups of girls the Association did not reach. The organization should more closely identify itself with all problems of the cities, affecting girls' health, housing conditions and that playgrounds, higher education and suppression of vice. In short, a most extensive and aggressive policy was demanded.

Places of commercialized entertainment were well-known to all girls. They were not ignorant about the movies. Commercialized vice and aggressive hands knew how to reach out into the city where girls were to be found.

CLOSURE IN U. S. SENATE TO BRING TREATY DEBATE TO END

Washington, Nov. 15.—A closure to shut down debate on the peace treaty was adopted to-day in the Senate by a vote of seventy-eight to sixteen.

Republican and Democratic leaders voted together for the closure, which means that until the treaty is disposed of no Senator may speak in all more than one hour. It was estimated that the step would bring final action within a week.

Reservation.
The action, invoking closure for the first time in the Senate's history, resulted in an immediate speeding up of the reservation programme, the next reservation on the Committee's list being adopted within one minute without debate or a rollcall. It related to mandates.

The text of the reservation adopted follows:
"No mandate shall be accepted by

Pound Sterling is at Lowest Point Yet in United States

New York, Nov. 15.—New low records for foreign exchange were made in the local market to-day. Demand sterling, which in normal times was quoted at $4.86 per pound, was down to $4.10, one cent below the previous low record. Dealers in franc cheques were forced to give 9.56 francs for a dollar, as compared with 5.18% in normal times.

BOLSHEVIKI SAY OMSK IN THEIR HANDS NOW

London, Nov. 15.—Omsk, capital of the All-Russian Government, has been occupied by Russian Bolshevik troops, a Bolshevik official communique received here to-day from Moscow, asserts.

The Kolchak forces, the statement added, are retreating in an easterly direction.

The evacuation of Omsk by all but the military defenders of the city was decided upon by the Kolchak Government early this month, after the Bolsheviks had captured Petropavlovsk and Ishim and were threatening an advance on the All-Russian capital.

The capture of Omsk, if confirmed, will compel the removal of the seat of the All-Russian Government some distance farther east. Some of the Government Departments already have been located at Tomsk, on the Trans-Siberian Railway about 350 miles east of Omsk.

To Irkutsk.
Helsinki, Nov. 15.—The evacuation of Omsk is progressing, the British, French and Italian Legations having already gone to Irkutsk, a Tokyo cable dispatch to-day to the Nippon Jiji, a Japanese newspaper here, said. The Japanese Minister is awaiting the arrival of the Bolsheviks, the advices stated. The Allies were said to fear the communications of the Japanese would be cut.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT MEETING TO-NIGHT

Local Service Organizations Invite Large Civilian Attendance

"There is every reason to believe the seating accommodation for 5,000 people will be taxed to the limit at to-night's mass meeting at the New Drill Hall," says a statement issued by the committee in charge of the re-establishment mass meeting. "All classes of citizens have indicated a keen interest in the project, which they intend to back up with their presence. The interest created in the question of re-establishment by the announcement of the meeting has resulted in many citizens making inquiries concerning the requirements of the returned men. The replies have surprised them, and they have frankly admitted they have been harboring erroneous ideas in connection with this vital problem."

"The greatest problem confronting the people of Canada to-day—a problem which affects every citizen of Canada—is totally unknown or only partially understood. Too often the prevailing idea is that the returned men are holding a pistol at the head of the nation and crying, 'Stand and deliver.' Were the situation less serious it would be decidedly humorous, but the distress prevalent amongst the dependents and returned men precludes any suggestion of mirth."

Application Justified.
"Canada's veterans and the widows and orphans of the undying dead are justified in asking the people to make themselves conversant with this problem. It is the people's problem, a problem it is their duty to understand in order to be able to take an intelligent interest in the question. With the support of the public the Government can be made to realize the responsibility which the country should assume in relation to the well-being of the citizens who rendered service to the very limit of human endurance. They do not ask for the earth. They ask for justice, and they are confident the people are prepared to grant it."

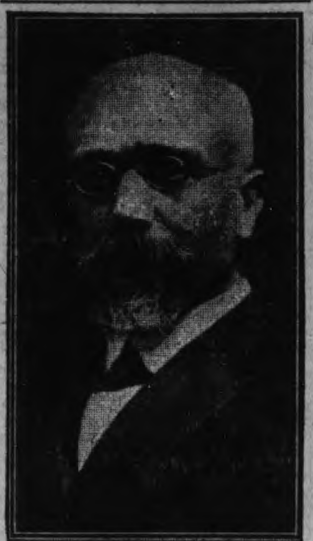

"To-night's meeting will deal fully with the re-establishment question. Many phases unknown to the citizens will be explained, and if the (Concluded on page 4.)

Troops of Hungary Enter Budapest as Roumanians Leave

Budapest Nov. 14, via London, Nov. 15.—Evacuation by the Roumanian troops of Budapest is going on without incident. The Minister of Justice has placarded the city with announcements that martial law will be invoked to deal with acts of violence, murder, pillage or arson.

The entry of the Hungarian national army under Admiral Horthy will take place this morning.

DECLARES EUROPE MUST OUST TURKS; PREMIER VENIZELOS

SAYS TURKS MUST LEAVE EUROPE

Venizelos of Opinion That Otherwise Peace Would Be Bankrupt

Paris, Nov. 15.—The failure of the Peace Conference to expel the Turks from Europe would spell bankruptcy of the peace, said M. Venizelos, the Greek Premier, to the Associated Press to-day. "Neither the Greeks, Bulgarians nor Roumanians will consider the Balkan question settled so long as the Turks remain in Europe."

Nettled at the interpretation given by the press to the Supreme Council's letter to him on Wednesday last, Premier Venizelos said that the Council, far from approving the findings of the Commission, wrote: "The Supreme Council, while admitting a good foundation for the reservation you have taken, cannot find that the results of the investigation may be regarded as entirely vicious."

PRINCE OF WALES IN WEST VIRGINIA

Entire Population of White Sulphur Springs Greeted Him

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Nov. 15.—The Prince of Wales and his suite arrived here to-day for a three-day stay. The royal guest will remain in the town of White Sulphur Springs, which is the entire population of this winter resort, which gathered at the train to greet him. Also a big Union Jack flew from the topmost tower of the hotel, telling the mountaineers that a royal guest had come.

HUGE INVESTMENTS MAY BRING CITY UP TO TOTAL LAST YEAR

Over Million Dollars Invested at Eleventh Hour; City Subscribes $467,000 More; All Island Points Pass Objectives

With the city's total bond investment standing at $6,064,650 at noon to-day, Brigadier-General Clark, Island Loan chairman, expects that by midnight Greater Victoria will have reached its 1918 loan total of $6,312,750, and thus passed its 1919 objective by $1,312,000.

Investments in Victory Bonds yesterday and this morning amounted to $1,400,844, and when official figures were issued to-day a steady stream of eleventh-hour applications was pouring into headquarters. At noon the city had passed its quota by $2,864,650 and its objective by $1,064,650, and had won three crests to its honor flag.

Up-Island points, up to noon, had invested $1,272,500, which is $30,500 more than their combined objective. Thus the loan total for the whole Island, exclusive of the West Coast and the Gulf Islands, stood at $7,337,150, which is only $456,600 below the whole Island's 1919 investment.

How It Was Done.
Up to Thursday night Greater Victoria had invested $4,563,706. The tremendous leap from this sum to over six million dollars is explained by the fact that a number of very large investments were made at the last moment. In addition, General Clark, after a short interview with Mayor Porter this morning announced that the city had transferred $467,000, which it had had in the 1918 loan. This transaction, which is quite apart from the city's previous $100,000 investment, has been under consideration by the Civic Finance Committee for some time, and was not finally decided upon until yesterday.

A Staggering Total.
"The total is staggering," General Clark explained when announcing that the city had passed the six million mark. "When we started the drive we were told on all sides that $5,000,000 was too large an objective, that we would fall far short of that mark. At times, perhaps, it looked as if we would. Personally, I was confident that the splendid organization which has been making the campaign go could secure this sum. But, it was only within the last few hours that I dreamed it would be done. $6,000,000. The way things are going now, and the speed of the drive to-day—makes me expect with considerable confidence that by midnight we shall reach last year's figures. We only need about a quarter of a million to do it. I believe it will be done."

"I can only say that the splendid support that the loan organization has given, and the realization of the public that bonds were a good investment, and that the success of the loan was vitally necessary for the prosperity of Canada has accounted for this extraordinary result. The men who 'put over' the loan were splendid. If I asked one to work all (Concluded on page 4.)

ARMENIANS STILL DESPERATE FOR FOOD

Starvation Faces Half a Million People Unless Relief Given

Paris, Nov. 15.—Half a million persons will starve in the Caucasus this winter unless immediate relief is provided, in the opinion of Colonel William Haskell, Allied High Commissioner in Armenia, who left Paris last night for Tiflis, after having conferred with delegates to the Peace Conference for the last two weeks.

"One million Russian Armenians and 300,000 Turkish Armenians now are living a terrible existence in the Armenian Republic," he said. There will be no harvest this year, and there are no cattle. Houses have been destroyed and there is neither medicine nor clothing."

Terrible Conditions.
According to Colonel Haskell, homeless families are living in a terrible condition.

"Twenty thousand orphans are totally supported in forty-nine orphanages," he said. "Eighteen hundred beds are provided in hospitals. We have maintained bread lines and soup kitchens which have supported countless thousands. In Alexandropolis alone 12,000 under-nourished children receive nourishment daily. The starving children by thousands are gathered in compounds by Armenian officials and we take care of as many as possible."

"During my visit of inspection, I saw twenty-three children carried out of one compound dead. We rescued the remainder."

MEN NOW PATROL ONLY JAIL AREA

Centralia Loses Likeness to an Armed Camp; I. W. W. Still Hunted

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 15.—Centralia to-day began to lose its likeness to an armed camp. National Guardsmen and former American soldiers who had been patrolling all parts of the city since Tuesday, when four American Legion members fell before I. W. W. bullets, to-day were confining their patrols to the city jail area. Parties still were searching the surrounding country for alleged radicals.

Trials.
American Legion men and the state and county prosecutors to-day were seeking and preparing evidence to be used in the trials of the ten alleged I. W. W. formally charged with first degree murder yesterday in connection with the shooting Tuesday.

Funerals of two more of the victims, Ben Casagrande and Dale Hubbard, were planned for to-day. The other two dead, Lieut. Warren Grimm and Arthur McElfresh, were buried yesterday. A public memorial meeting held yesterday was attended by thousands from all parts of the state. (Concluded on page 4.)

REACHES OBJECTIVE

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—British Columbia's Victory Loan objective of $25,000,000 was reached and passed this morning, and it is thought that the final figures will show subscriptions not far from $30,000,000. Vancouver went over the top this morning also, and passed its $12,000,000 objective.

FARMERS' PLATFORM CALLS FOR CHANGES

Toronto Globe Says Farmers' Political Party Most Radical

Toronto, Nov. 15.—Commenting today on the prospects of a Farmers' Federal Party to be built up in the first instance upon the foundations laid by the farmers of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario, The Globe says to-day editorially:

"The list of reforms to be placed upon the Federal statute books if the farmers have the power to do so indicates that the radicalism of the platform is not confined to tariff issues. In almost every direction, except perhaps in the matter of public operation of railways, the farmers are so far ahead of the old parties as to be almost out of sight. And the most upsetting thing from the old party standpoint is that the members of the Farmers' Party actually do accept the party platform as a condition of membership. In the ranks of the Liberal and Conservative parties there are many shadings of belief which result in the adoption of policies of compromise, and not infrequently in failure, after a party obtains power, to keep the pledges it gave during the campaign that resulted in its victory. The farmers may have similar difficulties in their private gatherings, but up to the present time their speakers with startling unanimity, in Ontario as in the west, have declared that the resolutions adopted by the Council of Agriculture constitute not only a platform on which an appeal will be made to the people, but a programme to be carried out to the letter should the farmers be placed in a position to form a Federal Government."

"That is why the forces of reaction look upon the Farmers' Party as the deadliest enemy privilege has ever had to face in Canada."

PARIS VISITED BY HEAVY SNOWFALL

Blizzard Struck France Last Night; People Suffer Discomfort

Paris, Nov. 15.—A blizzard struck the Paris region last night. Six to ten inches of snow fell and the storm continues with unabated violence. The central markets are practically deserted, surface cars and taxicab surfaces have been virtually tied up and trains from the provinces are arriving hours late. Some trains from the north have been stalled entirely. All overland telegraph communication with Spain has been interrupted. This is the earliest blizzard on record in Paris, adding greatly to the discomfort and misery from lack of fuel and the transportation facilities.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you will be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

MEIGHEN BACK IN OTTAWA NEXT WEEK

Preparation of Grand Trunk Agreement Then Will Be Pressed

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—There is no further information as to when the agreement between the Government and the Grand Trunk Railway Company, which is now being prepared, will be ready for submission to the shareholders. Hon. Arthur Meighen, who piloted the Grand Trunk bill through the Commons, is absent from the city, but probably will be back early next week. The long experience of Sir Henry Drayton in railway matters will prove valuable in the drafting of the agreement, which will have to be submitted to the Cabinet before being presented to Sir Alfred Smithers, who will take it to London, England.

The appointment of a commission of Ministers to investigate the tariff probably will be dealt with by the Minister of Finance shortly after his return.

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—The committee of management which will make arrangements for the future co-ordination of the Grand Trunk and Canadian National Railway systems is not likely to be appointed for some time. It may be that the organization of this committee will wait the final consummation of the agreement between the Government and the Grand Trunk shareholders. It is improbable that this agreement will be completed and signed by both parties before the middle of December.

SAYS EXPLANATION CHILLED THE HOUSE

London Chronicle on Seely's Resignation From Air Ministry

London, Nov. 15.—The newspapers have taken Major-General Seely's resignation from the Air Ministry quietly and indicated that Parliament did the same. Briefly, his reason was dissatisfaction with the dual control at the War Office and the Air Ministry. The Daily Chronicle said the House was chilled by the poverty of his explanation, the inadequacy of his motive for resigning and his action in crossing the floor of the House. The Daily News alluded to the interminable squabble and jealousies of departments for control of the Air Force and suggested that encouragement of civil aviation would supply the army and navy with a reserve of flying men and machines. The Times noted a flavor of vanity in General Seely's speech which was not disagreeable, and asserted that the Department of Civil Aviation had been the Cinderella of the public service ever since its creation.

DREADNOUGHT COST OVER £5,000,000

London, Nov. 15.—Rt. Hon. Walter Hume Long stated in the House of Commons yesterday that the cost of the battleship Hood, exclusive of guns and ammunition, amounted to more than £5,000,000. H.M.S. Hood was launched in August, 1918, and is the first capital ship built since the battle of Jutland. The old Majestic cost under £1,000,000, and the Dreadnought type cost nearly £2,000,000.

CONSTIPATION or COSTIVENESS

Constipation, although generally described as a disease, can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver. There is nothing more productive of general ill health than constipation of the bowels, and a regular action is absolutely essential to general health. One of the most common, painful and troublesome troubles caused by constipation is piles, and unless the bowels are kept open by the use of a good laxative such as Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills the whole system will be poisoned and many different complications of diseases arise, so if you would be well, keep your bowels regular.

Mr. A. Roder, Hastings St. N., Vancouver, B. C., writes: "I desire to express my thanks for what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me. I had been suffering from constipation for two years, and also had a bad cough and headache. I tried all sorts of cures and remedies, but got no relief until I was advised to try your pills. I got great relief after the first few doses." Get Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills when you ask for them or send 25c. and they will be sent by return mail by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MANY CALLS ON PATRIOTIC FUND

Ottawa, Nov. 13.—The executive secretary of the Canadian Patriotic Fund reports that applications for assistance for dependents of discharged soldiers are increasing in number daily, and that more than 200 are now receiving regular monthly allowances. In addition, many hundreds of families are assisted each month by compassionate grants, rendered necessary on account of sickness or accident in the family, by delay in pension or war service gratuity, or by some other circumstance.

The majority of the women who are receiving regular monthly allowances are deserted wives, whose husbands either remained overseas, taking their discharge in England, or having returned home, left their wives within three months of discharge. The Fund also reports that a number of applications have been received from women whose husbands deserted them after being at home for a longer period. To avoid fraud and the chance of collusion, it was found necessary to make the stipulation that desertion must have taken place during the period of the maximum military service, or within three months of the man's discharge.

BIG SUPPLY OF WHISKY WAS FOUND

London, Ont., Nov. 13.—Seventy-five cases of whiskey addressed to Winnipeg were found alongside the C. P. R. tracks just east of this city yesterday by the police. A line man who had discovered the whiskey sampled it, and, becoming intoxicated, told of the find, causing confiscation of the entire consignment before the bootleggers for whom it was intended could get it away.

POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA UNCHANGED

Allies Maintain Their Stand, Says Pichon, French Minister

Paris, Nov. 13.—The policy of the Allies concerning Russia remains unchanged, it was semi-officially stated here yesterday following the return of Stephon Pichon, the French Foreign Minister, from London. It was said that the Russian Government which are leading the fight against Bolshevism are sufficiently supplied with money, ammunition and food for several months. Neither France nor Great Britain, it was declared, would make any further sacrifices, but on the other hand, neither of them would open negotiations of any nature tending to strengthen Bolshevism.

Little Enthusiasm.
Washington, Nov. 13.—Because of the serious lack of food in Bolshevik controlled Russia and other economic difficulties experienced by the Soviet Government, not much real enthusiasm is felt in Moscow over the forward movement of the Bolshevik forces, according to advices received by the State Department. The dispatches said that due to the lack of morale in the Soviet army, Trotsky recently ordered forces following up the Bolshevik armies to fire on any "Red" soldiers who fell back. The Soviet forces were said to number only 200,000 men, distributed on the various fronts.

Yamburg.
London, Nov. 13.—Bolshevik troops captured Yamburg, sixty-eight miles southwest of Petrograd, yesterday afternoon, according to a wireless dispatch received here last evening from Moscow.

MINE WORKERS AND WAYS OF AGITATORS

Lethbridge, Nov. 13.—Declaring that much of the recent One Big Union trouble in District No. 18 of the United Mine Workers of America was caused by agitators doing the thinking for the miners, A. Bryant, representing the miners of the Chinook Collieries, giving evidence yesterday before the Alberta Coal Commission, told how, while the fight for control in this district was at its height, the miners in that mine had voted to break away from the international and join the One Big Union. Later they broke away from the One Big Union and joined up with the international again. Two weeks later they were swayed by a One Big Union agitator and left the United Mine Workers of America. Three weeks later again they decided they had better stay with their international affiliations.

This evidence bore out strongly the statement made by Commissioner Laughan, representing District No. 18 of the United Mine Workers of America, who declared that much of the instability in the coal mines industry in Alberta was caused by the agitators who so easily swayed the rank and file, making it almost impossible for the district officers to follow a straight course which would result in fewer rash promises to the men and less pithead strikes. The Commission closed its session here yesterday.

FRENCH SAILORS USE THEIR VOTES

MEN THREATENED BY SPOKANE I. W. W.

Radicals Hint at Violence in Store For Nine Legionaries

Spokane, Nov. 13.—Nine local members of the American Legion were threatened with the fate of the four former soldiers killed at Centralia on Tuesday in a letter received at local American Legion headquarters yesterday through the mail.

The letter, signed "Industrial Workers of the World, Fred Rushman, Managing Secretary," was typewritten and the letter head was torn off. It was mailed here on Thursday.

"We have them marked all over the country," the letter declared. "We got the Centralia bunch, and the following men will get theirs unless you instruct them to lay off."

"Free World"
The letter, signed "Yours for a free world," said:

"For the past two or three months the Spokane chapter of the I.W.W. has been watching the activities of several leaders of the American Legion. You have taken an open issue stand against the I.W.W. on the floor of your club room. All we want to state at this time that the American Legion in Spokane is doomed to fail, and will be curbed by the working classes. Our members have instructed me to write you at this time notifying you that unless the following men discontinue to create hatred against the I.W.W. of Spokane they will follow in the footsteps of the marked ones at Centralia."

Names

The men named in the letter as "marked" by the I.W.W. are: Frank McKevitt, Lester Mallett, Frank O'Leary, Henry Wise, Ralph Gordon, Russel Alexander, H. E. T. Herman, Jas. Albi and Harold Pitts.

The majority of them are overseas veterans, and with but one or two exceptions held commissions in the army.

Wise is manager of the local American Legion post and Alexander is president. Pitts is manager of the local office of the State Veterans' Welfare Commission. Albi is president of the Flyers' Club, an organization of ex-service aviation men. All men have been active in the affairs of the American Legion here.

LABOR CONFERENCE AND WORKING WEEK

Washington, Nov. 13.—A special committee of the International Labor Conference decided yesterday in favor of an international convention for a general forty-eight-hour week. Decision was reached by a majority vote, labor delegates constituting the majority.

Labor men are now endeavoring to have the question re-opened in committee, that they may make further suggestions. Throughout the sittings of the committee, they stood for a maximum eight-hour day, but have not so far succeeded in their point. Senator Robertson, Canadian Minister of Labor, however, has introduced a compromise proposal for consideration. Under this proposal the convention would still be on a forty-eight-hour week basis, but the working hours on any individual day would be limited to nine.

Whether the committee will be so far agreed as to be able to present a unanimous report as yet is not evident. The committee will meet again on Monday, and the labor request for re-opening the question of a forty-eight-hour week will be considered, but it is now considered a foregone conclusion that a convention on the basis of a forty-eight-hour week would require the necessary two-thirds vote of the conference, and on all hands there is agreement that the adoption of an international convention limiting hours of labor will bring about a change in industrial relationship, the scope of which it is impossible to foresee. As a convention it would be the first of its kind. It will bring millions of workers within its provisions and will be enforceable in all states which ratify it.

JUDGE ROBSON REPLIES.

Toronto, Nov. 13.—"Not a cent ever came off the farmers by any action of the Board of Commerce," declared Judge Robson, chairman of the Board, here yesterday, in a statement replying to the attack made by J. D. McGregor, of Manitoba, to the effect that an order of the Board was ruining the livestock industry.

Judge Robson said: "I have noticed the report of some extravagant utterances of Mr. McGregor, in which he attacks Mr. O'Connor, my associate on the Board of Commerce. One inference from the item is that Mr. O'Connor had issued individual orders. I wish to state that no orders are made in such matters by one Commissioner. The order to which Mr. McGregor refers are orders which had my concurrence."

FACTS ABOUT SARCOL THE CELEBRATED PHOSPHATE TONIC

Now any GOOD tonic will help to put on flesh, if one is thin and in a run-down condition through lack of appetite, but as a Reliable Tonic, same formula as always, it has, we are convinced, no superior competitor, and that is the verdict of those who have given it a fair trial. This is our announcement:

MUST SUBMIT PLANS.

In its reply to Premier Oliver's letter to the press in connection with the Johnson Street bridge controversy our morning contemporary to-day says: "Instead of wasting time and money in the preparation of plans for a separate bridge, before anything is done the authority of the Governor-in-Council regarding the location should be sought."

This would be putting the cart before the horse, and would be futile. Application to the Dominion Government for permission to construct a bridge, wharf or any other work which interferes with navigation must be accompanied by plans of the proposed structure as well as of its site. This is required by the Navigable Waters Protection Act, which says: "The local authority, company or person proposing to construct any work in navigable waters, for which no sufficient sanction otherwise exists, may deposit the plans thereof and a description of the proposed site with the Minister of Public Works and a duplicate of each in the office of the registrar of deeds for the district, country or province in which such work is proposed to be constructed, and may apply to the Governor-in-Council for approval thereof." It is further required that one month's notice of the deposit of plans and the application shall be given by advertisement in The Canada Gazette.

After the plans have been received by the Minister of Public Works they are referred to the Chief Engineer of the Department, who instructs the departmental resident engineer in the district to investigate and report upon the proposed work, its effect upon navigation and whether there is any well-founded objection to it on the part of other interests. If his report is favorable a recommendation is sent to the Governor-in-Council by the Minister that an Order be passed granting permission for the prosecution of the work. Often it is found that the plans submitted are not in sufficient detail or that the information required by the regulations is lacking in some particulars, and both application and plans are returned for amendment.

Consequently, it is impossible to obtain permission to erect a separate bridge without first preparing plans and a full statement of information regarding the site to accompany the application to the Minister of Public Works. Any application not supported in this way would be promptly returned by the Minister.

TO LENGTHEN THE SPAN.

In an address before a gathering of many eminent leaders in the medical world, Dr. W. J. Mayo, the celebrated surgeon of Rochester, Minnesota, speaking as President of the American College of Surgeons, predicted that within the next few decades medical progress and knowledge likely would add fifteen years to the average life of man. Dr. Mayo's remarks on this interesting point were:

"In the work of the medical profession lies the best hope for the future. Since the close of the Civil War fifteen years have been added to the average length of human life. With present knowledge and present conditions, fifteen years more might be added to the life of man in this country within the next twenty years. It is certain that ten years will be added, at the most productive age, from a standpoint of industry, and will greatly aid in maintaining our position as the most productive nation. When I was a boy it was difficult for men of forty to find a new job, and for a man of fifty it was practically impossible. To-day the older men are great assets to the country."

"In the prolongation of their lives, their skill and experience in their particular work count for much. They are less inflammable, they have family ties and responsibilities—they have something to lose—so that they are less under the influence of the violent agitator."

"If, as a nation, we advance the time of production of each person ten years, we can well afford to shorten the hours of work and improve living conditions, and we shall be able to compete with those countries in which long hours and poor living conditions shorten human life, and eventually decrease production and increase social unrest."

In view of the fact that medical science, like every other branch of human progress, is still comparatively in swaddling clothes, the prediction of Dr. Mayo might be found to be quite conservative. Much will depend, however, upon the measure in which the medical profession imparts its knowledge to the individual; that is to say, upon the degree in which the individual is taught to play his or her part in lengthening the human span. Through the enlightenment furnished by medical science people in time should become more and more their own physicians in respect of the prevention of disease, at any rate, if not in its cure.

MOVEMENT OF ALIENS.

Notwithstanding the re-establishment of diplomatic and commercial relations between most of the countries combatant in the late war, incidents such as that which took place at Kelowna a few days ago must be expected.

Twenty-seven Austrians and Hungarians arrived at the Orchard City intent upon settling in the Okanagan Valley. A delegation of returned men met the steamer and refused to permit these subjects of the former Hapsburg kingdom to land. At other points called at by the lake boat all attempts to discharge its alien passengers failed. There was nothing for it but to take them back to Okanagan Landing where, according to latest reports, the unhappy travellers remain as guests of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

It is quite true that these people have resided in Saskatchewan for a number of years. But that does not alter the fact that the national attitude towards the former enemies of the Empire has undergone a very decided change. There is nothing extraordinary about it and it is small wonder if the average Canadian—to say nothing of the man who fought against the Central Alliance—finds it difficult to tune his personal sentiment with international harmony supposedly restored by the signing of the Peace Treaty.

It will take time. On that account the Dominion Government should exercise some control over the movements of aliens in this country if the Okanagan Valley incident is not to have numerous duplicates. The alien has sat tight during the war. If he seeks fresh fields and pastures new now, he must be subjected to conditions which while not to his liking are certainly natural enough.

AERIAL REFORESTATION.

Re-seeding the burnt forest areas of the Province from the seat of a low-flying aeroplane may strike the uninitiated as too much like a flight of the imagination. It sounds ambitious and expert opinion may not be prepared for such rapid progress. Scieptics could not conceive a non-stop Atlantic flight in sixteen hours. Nevertheless, Sir John Alcock's achievement is now a matter of history.

Aerial survey already has been carried out with success in the Okanagan valley. Photographic records obtained of the watershed in the particular section inspected from aloft constitute the equivalent to two months' work by an average survey party on foot. A local demonstration by Lieut. Brown at Duncan established the efficacy of forest patrol from the air during the fire season. In the light of those successful experiments it will not do to ignore the potentialities of aerial navigation in any particular without positive proof of impracticability.

In his suggestion for re-seeding destroyed tracts of timber Mr. C. C. Pemberton has been promised co-operation by the local branch of the Aerial League of Canada. And in this connection it is to be hoped that the Dominion Government will make up its mind to assist the Province in the matter of machines in time to give a thorough test of aerial forest patrol next summer. British Columbia's forest wealth is a national as well as a provincial asset and, as such, co-operative plans for its preservation should be good business.

THE WAR-TIME WINK.

English women are beginning to wear monocles, both at home and in the streets, says a dispatch from London. Defence for the innovation naturally would come from the optician and one of the profession confessed that in the case of every inquiry he had had from women recently there had been "a genuine trouble with one eye only." Admittedly, the war has revolutionized society. Women did men's work while the sterner sex fought Germans on the battlefield. Some war-time customs adopted by the valiant women workers will remain. All these things are understandable from the commonsense point of view. It stands to reason that a female farm worker by choice has finished with petticoats during work hours at least. But this is the first time we have heard of the one-eye trouble classed as a "recent attack on the eternal feminine," as one professional man put it. It may be, of course, that the wink of war time is now exacting payment for the strain imposed upon it.

ALL CLEAR NOW.

It is satisfactory to note that an amicable arrangement has been reached between the Provincial Government and the Victoria City Council in connection with the time-limit clause in the housing agreement. It is now understood that the city will spread its allocation of $180,000 over a period of twelve months instead of three as provided in the original clause. We hope all the necessary formalities will be disposed of as rapidly as possible in order that a commencement of the building programme may be made.

A FAMOUS INN.

The "Mermaid" at Rye is for sale, and rumor has it that the famous old hostelry may cross the Atlantic in pieces and be re-erected in the United States, which would be a calamity, not only for Rye, but for England. The "Mermaid" is one of the finest existing specimens of Old English domestic architecture, and it is not to be wondered at that American eyes have looked enviously at its oak-beamed ceilings and lovely old panelled rooms. The old house is thought to have been finished in the middle of the fifteenth century, and so it has watched Rye decline from its proud position as a flourishing port to its present state of sunny peace, beloved of artists and forgotten by commerce. It is unthinkable that anything so English as the "Mermaid" should essentially be a part of England, should be allowed to leave her for another country, that only strangers should tread the uneven old floors, worn by the feet of generations of Englishmen. The old inn belongs to England, and its place is in "Rye of the Marshes," with her steep old streets and tiled roofs, to which time has given the soft, warm tints of wall flowers.

HUGE INVESTMENTS
MAY BRING CITY TO

night, there was no talk about it, he simply worked all night, that's all. That was the spirit, the spirit that could not help winning. It is impossible to thank everyone individually, or to thank the men who invested all they could gather together in bonds. To the whole city and the whole island we are profoundly grateful."

Up-Island Returns.

It is quite probable, according to the statements of loan chiefs, that up-Island points will have reached their 1918 total of $1,481,000 by mid-night. As the total up to noon was $1,272,590, only $208,500 remains to be invested. Some of the island centres stand a good chance of winning the provincial loan prize of a German gun, judging by the number of honor crests won. Shawnigan, for instance, has won fourteen crests, each signifying a twenty-five per cent. investment above its quota. Cassidy is next with eight. Reports from Sidney are incomplete, but it is announced that $125,000 had been invested up to noon. This means that the town is entitled to eight crests.

Complete returns from the various districts are as follows:

	Totals	Quota	Crests
Cobble Hill	$44,700	$14,000	7
Shawnigan	46,450	10,000	14
Duncan	200,000	120,000	2
Chemainus	74,600	68,000
Ladysmith	90,500	80,000

Prominent Chinese Invest $40,000.

At a dinner given last night by General Clark to prominent Chinese merchants the latter invested a total of $40,000. This sum swelled the investment of the local Chinese colony to $160,000, which is just four times its $40,000 quota. Thus Chinatown has won six crests, which General Clark presented last night.

During the course of the banquet Mr. Lee Mong Kow pointed to one of the best known of local Chinese merchants and exclaimed, "You can invest $10,000!"

The merchant without a word filled out an application for that amount. "And you can take $5,000, and you, and you," Mr. Mong Kow continued. As he pointed to the various gentlemen present, he said, "I have the specified number of bonds, until the total reached $40,000."

General Clark expressed his gratitude for this splendid response and congratulated the Chinese on making a strong bid for the German gun which is the prize for the centre subscribing most per capita in the Province. Mr. Mong Kow, in reply, assured the General of the loyalty of the Chinese and their satisfaction over the success of the loan.

Nelson's Subscription.

Nelson, Nov. 14.—Nelson to-night had $530,000 in Victory Loan subscriptions, with $25,000 yet to get to equal last year's gross figures. Grand Forks, with $185,000 in hand, will try for the $100,000 mark. It is believed not a town in the Kootenay has failed to get its quota and flag and most have won two or more decorations. The leading community is Greenwood which with a quota of $10,000, had $40,000 in hand yesterday, entitling it to twelve crests.

MASS MEETINGS CALLED IN BERLIN

fused to permit Field-Marshal von Hindenburg to enter the Reichstag building to testify before the sub-committee which is investigating war responsibilities, and forced the Field-Marshal's chauffeur to return with the former Commander-in-Chief to his home.

The demonstration occurred this morning. As the Field-Marshal's automobile was being driven toward the Reichstag building, the students surrounded it and declared their unwillingness to allow him to be questioned by the sub-committee.

Closed Street.

Von Hindenburg begged the students, who clung to the running board of the machine, to allow the automobile to pass, as he was due at the Reichstag building. The students, however, replied by ordering the street closed, declaring they were unwilling to allow the sub-committee to interrogate him.

Again Hindenburg protested, but he was unable to quell the demonstration.

It was a Nationalist demonstration for both von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, and for a time it assumed serious proportions. The crowd which gathered consisted of students of both sexes, who carried an old German flag.

Cheers.

When Hindenburg's automobile was waylaid the crowd cheered both von Hindenburg and Ludendorff, and shouted: "Down with the Jewish Government!" After von Hindenburg's protests that he should be allowed to proceed were denied the automobile nevertheless slowly began to piece its way through the crowd toward the Reichstag building. Thousands of persons followed singing "Die Wacht am Rhein" and "Deutschland über Alles." There were also shouts of "Rothers, we will not allow such a disgrace!" "For us there is only one Kaiser and Empire," and "We will not endure that our glorious Kaiser be besmirched!"

DEBATE TO END

Hitchcock to declare the doctrine in no way "impaired or affected" by the treaty. Only two Democrats, Senator Reed, Missouri, and Senator Shields, Tennessee, stood with the Republicans for the Committee draft.

Another substitute for the Committee's Monroe Doctrine reservation offered by Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, proposing that the United States reserve for its disposal any question raised under the Monroe Doctrine also was voted down fifty-two to forty-two.

The Committee's Monroe Doctrine reservation was adopted by a vote of fifty-five to thirty-three.

Democrats' Strength.

The rollcall revealed the greatest Democratic strength yet shown for any part of the reservation programme, nine Democrats voting for adoption.

In taking up the Committee reservation relative to retention by the Government of control over domestic questions, the Senate by a vote of fifty-two to forty-three rejected a substitute proposed by Senator Hitchcock.

The Committee reservation relating to domestic questions then was adopted.

An amendment to the Committee reservation so as to make it include questions regarding boundaries of the United States and its possessions was adopted fifty-two to forty, with party lines on both sides divided.

Shantung.

The Shantung reservation was adopted without change. A substitute by Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, was defeated fifty to thirty-nine.

Spokane, Nov. 15.—Evidence was lacking here to-day of a supposed invasion of the city by members of the I. W. Organizer Arrested.

Port Angeles, Wash., Nov. 15.—G. S. Ross, said to be the head and organizer of the I. W. W. on the Olympic Peninsula, was arrested here yesterday. Officers searched his office and said they found five suitcases full of I. W. W. literature and pamphlets and many alleged radical periodicals. In Ross's mail, the police asserted, they found a letter from an organization known as "Der Klagsenkampf," Chicago, signed by a Secretary Shelton, who styled himself as secretary of the German propaganda branch of the I. "The Army and Navy Veterans, Comrades of the Great War and G. W. V. A. have combined in promoting the meeting, and will be represented by official speakers. The British Campaigners have rendered valuable assistance in making the meeting possible, but the executive committee have decided to refrain from active participation, as it is impossible to call a meeting to put the question before the general membership."

"A band will be in attendance and will play many of the old favorite songs and marches. A last and special appeal is made to the citizens to come and hear the ex-service men's views. Listening does not commit anyone, but it enables them to obtain first-hand information. The people trusted the service men in the hour of danger and they did not fail. The ex-service men trust the citizens to come and hear the truth and they will not fail to justify that trust."

Many residents of Vancouver Island will be interested in the marriage which took place at Christ Church Cathedral, Vancouver, on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Marguerite Louise Clarke, only daughter of the late S. J. Clarke and Mrs. Clarke, of Calgary, became the wife of Captain Archibald Gordon Dobbie, son of Col. H. H. Dobbie, of Maple Bay, Vancouver Island. The Rev. Dr. Craig officiated. The bride was given away by her brother, S. T. Clarke, and Miss Louise Brocklebank, of Hollywood, California, was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Lieut. W. F. Clafke, M.C. LADY SHRINERS HOLD DANCE AT ALEXANDRA

Daughters of Nile, Miriam Chapter No. 2 Entertain Friends

Lady Shriners held a very enjoyable event at the Alexandra Club last night when some three hundred members and friends of the Daughters of the Nile, Miriam Temple No. 2, danced merrily to the accompaniment of Heaton's five-piece orchestra. A most enjoyable evening was spent and all voted the entertainment one of the best of its kind ever held here.

Mrs. Isabella Spence, Queen of the Chapter, was in charge of the arrangements and was ably assisted by members of the various committees, who put every effort into the affair in order to make it a success. Following the dancing, a dainty supper was served.

The Daughters of the Nile, Miriam Temple No. 2 is the second organization of its kind in North America and the only one in Canada. It is composed of the wives, sisters and female relatives of the Shriners and therefore the membership is limited in each locality. Unless the constitution is changed the organization in Victoria will be the only chapter in British Columbia, the rules at present prohibiting more than one. The social activities of the order are in invitation affairs and always prove popular.

for it is announced that all the tables and all the window seats in the ballroom have already been sold for the cabaret to be given at the Empress Hotel on Wednesday evening next, and all there is in the way of accommodation remaining on sale is standing room. The tables in the palm room are being reserved for "first-comers" on the night of the cabaret, and it is just as well to remind the public generally that "first-takers" are "keepers." In other words anyone who is given a table in the palm room next Wednesday night will be entitled to reserve this for themselves for the remainder of the evening, just the same as those who hold tables in the ballroom.

In anticipation of the big crowd it is known will be present arrangements are being made for dancing to take place in the writing room, dancers to move right on from the ballroom through the wide-flung doors through the hall to this more spacious salon; then back again. This will be welcome news to those who in times gone by have realized an uncomfortable crush when dancing was confined to the ballroom alone.

A telegram was received by the committee from Seattle yesterday asking for a table for twenty. Another big party is coming down from Vancouver in order to attend the event, so there is not the remotest doubt now in the minds of the management that the undertaking will be a great success.

Open Till 9 p. m. This Evening.

THE AFTERMATH OF THE FLU EPIDEMIC

Necessity Pointed Out of Public Being on Their Guard For Several Years to Come

In a recent number of the Saturday Evening Post a writer called pointed attention to the special dangers existing in the years following an influenza outbreak. He quotes the vice-president of a great insurance company as saying that after the "flu" wave of 1889 the mortality rate, especially from pneumonia, was high for some years.

A noted physician is also quoted as saying: "It is altogether probable that as an after effect of the influenza there will be an unusually high pneumonia death rate for several years to come."

Warnings such as these should be borne in mind and drive home to every person the necessity of prompt action in every case of cold—usually the forerunner of influenza, pneumonia and kindred ailments.

It is possible to afford effective relief for a cold by home treatment, especially if it is taken in its early stages. Just as soon as the sneezing, running at the nose, closing up of the head occurs—start taking Grip Fix. This preparation contains Aspirin, Phenacetine, Quinine, Salol, Caffeine Citrate and Camphor Monobromate—drugs which any physician will say are the proper treatment for colds. So effective is it that Grip Fix relieves a cold in a night and a case of Grippe in forty-eight hours. This statement is made on a merchandising experience of over ten years during which the preparation was used all over the country.

Get a box of Grip Fix to-night and take it home. Then, when colds come, a reliable treatment is at hand. Be sure and get the genuine Reid's Grip Fix as there are no substitutes which can be as effective work. It sells at 35 cents per box and can be obtained at any drug store.

TELLS NATURAL HISTORIANS ALL ABOUT WHALING

Will Kelly Impart Interesting
Information on Remarkable Coast Industry

Will Kelly, of the Consolidated Whaling Corporation, Point Ellice, addressed the Natural History Society at its meeting on Monday on the history of the whaling industry. Mr. Kelly said that while it was very unusual for the extremists of the whaling industry to be present in all whales. The specimen taken at Kyquoot was now at the Natural History Museum, New York.

Taking whaling as his subject, Mr. Kelly said that it was originally carried on in the Bay of Biscay by the Basques, who there took the Right Whale. Then fishing was done up the coast of England in the vicinity of Dundee, where the bowhead whale called Rhyt by the Dundee fishermen was taken. In those days harpooning was done by hand and the boat awaited the rising of the whale to the surface and being within range the harpoon was buried in the whale's body. In 1864, Sven Folin, of Tromsø, Norway, Mr. Kelly proceeded, invented the harpoon gun and harpoon and this same form with slight improvements is still in use. Up to 1871, 746 whales were captured off the coast of Norway.

In 1903 a ban was put on whaling as it was thought that they destroyed the herring fisheries, but it was found that the herring disappeared in spite of this and so the ban was removed.

Whaling Starts in B. C.

Sechart station was erected in 1906, Mr. Kelly observed, and whaling was set up as an industry, in British Columbia. Kyquoot being opened in 1907. Later still the United States Government opened at Unimak Pass in the Aleutians. In Japan there are a large number of stations, one company alone operating 34 steam whalers. At Durban, South Africa, the station is twenty-four miles inland, to which the whales are transported. In British Columbia the Whaling Corporation hunts sulphur bottom, humpback, finback, California gray and Sei whales. Sulphur bottoms are from 75 to 85 feet long and yield from 150 to 160 barrels of oil from the blubber and 40 barrels from the body and bones. The finback, of 52 to 62 feet in length, are called the race horse whale, being very clean cut and strong and fast swimming. He has known of a whale in four hours before the whale gave in. The humpback may produce 50 barrels of oil. During the whaling seasons of different years the kind of whale present would vary. The Sei has a dorsal fin of 18 feet. It is a good edible whale.

Edible Whales.
In Japan, Mr. Kelly proceeded, the sperm whale is dried and eaten. This whale, unlike the baleen species, feeds on octopi and cuttle fish, of which enormous horrid specimens are found in the whale's stomach. The sperm has teeth for tearing food. Its sinews are used for substituting for catgut, while the oil, which is unsaponifiable, that is useless for making soap, is used for tanning, lubricating and burning. The substance called ambergris is the diseased matter from the whales inside caused by the indigestible mandibles of the cuttle fish which irritate the animal.

The little whaling steamers used are generally some 100 tons with 350 horsepower engines and carry a crew of eleven men. It is essential that the crew should be, especially that the harpooner thoroughly acquainted with the habits of the whales, and so specialized has this become that one man may be an expert on one while while he is indifferent on another. For instance the expert knows that sperm travel in well ordered lines and straight ahead at certain speed. A sperm sighted at one point may be expected at another point along the coast at a certain time.

Whales Have Been Hearing.

If scattered they will come together again in a very short time. Mr. Kelly declared, and it is considered that this is the result of the remarkable keen sense of hearing they have. The ear hole is not bigger than the diameter of a pencil and the tube and

Legs on Whales.

On the question of legs Mr. Kelly said that it was considered by Professor Andrews of the New York Museum, who spent some months with the Whaling Company to study whales, that whales generally were land animals and took to water at the time of the formation of coal, taking a transitional state of amphibianism first. Now the front flippers which have the fingers and thumb covered are used only for steering, while the hind legs have become attenuated and buried in the flesh, and are only eight to ten inches long. Very occasionally the legs develop enough to protrude from the body.

In traveling along, Mr. Kelly pursued, the whale comes up to blow four times swimming between blows at about thirty feet below the surface for a distance of 150 yards. Then he dives to great depth, having filled himself with air to resist the water pressure. The corrugations on the under side of a whale are the "pleats" which allow its body to swell. The gunner knows exactly where to look for the rising whale and seldom misses it at the first shot. On the harpoon going into the animal a fastening holding the moving flukes is loosened and the instrument is then unable to be withdrawn, at the same time becoming jointed with the line, thus preventing breaking the shaft. The harpoon is a bomb of 110 pounds weight with a time fuse attached to one pound of powder. When the whale is alongside it is finished off with a lance bomb. The body temperature of a whale is 103 degrees and this renders it necessary to be expeditious in towing it to the station.

Pumps Whales Full of Air.
When the first animal is taken the men pump it full of air to make it float and stick a pole and lantern in it to make it easy to pick up and then go off after some more. Whales Great Travelers

Whales are great travelers, a harpoon in one instance belonging to British Columbia being found in a whale caught in the South Orkneys. There is no sign of their disappearing. Last year the corporation took 99 and this year 1,025.

The corporation had supplied specimens of every age one inch long to the full size to the Natural History Museum, New York. Mr. Kelly had a number of photographs dealing with the subject which opened the eyes of all the members who had not much idea of this industry. Such facts as that a humpback has barnacles all over his flippers and snout and at the back of his head which are as large as four inches in diameter and have to be chopped off at the station, were indeed a surprise for many.

The question of the edible nature of whale meat was mooted, and Mr. Kelly said the corporation had put up a cannery and was making canned whale from the choice mammals. It had not as yet had a very extensive sale, which is a pity, as it is very good.

Mr. Kelly showed a model of a harpoon and described its working.

THIRTY DANCES AT POLICEMAN'S BALL

Grand Time Promised at Agricultural Buildings Next Thursday Night

Thirty dances are included in the programme of the Policeman's ball to be held on Thursday night at the Agricultural Buildings. The committee has shown a very excellent taste in the selection of the dance music, which includes all popular tunes, and, with Prof. Lou Turner's orchestra of twenty-five pieces, it can be concluded that the music will be interpreted in a most gratifying manner.

George Varney, secretary of the ball committee, reported this morning that over 1,000 tickets had been sold. He fully expects to dispose of the remaining 1,000 before the evening of the dance. Mr. Varney states that dancing will commence at 9 o'clock, and that the National Anthem will not be played until the dancers are quite satisfied that they have had sufficient.

Splendid Decorations.
Sergeant Fry has had a squad of willing and active constables at work decorating the Woman's Building and the Main Hall and they have converted the immense structures into a real fairyland. The supper which is being provided under the capable supervision of Mr. Hill, will be served in the Woman's Building, where the cloak room will also be situated. The ball is being held under the patronage of His Honor the Lieut.-Governor and Lady Barnard, Hon. and Mrs. John Oliver and the Mayor and police commissioners.

Mr. Varney said this morning that he confidently expected that the ball this year would exceed in brilliance, patronage and enjoyment those of pre-war days. He also announced that arrangements have been made with the B. C. Electric Railway to provide special car service.

VICTORIA NURSE
DIES SUDDENLY

Miss Norah Mesher, of St. Joseph's, Passes Away in San Francisco

The many friends of Miss Norah Mesher were inexpressibly shocked to learn of her death at San Francisco on November 13, after a brief illness of only two days' duration. The late Miss Mesher was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mesher, of San Francisco, formerly of Victoria, and was twenty-two years of age. Educated at private schools in this city and at Yale, B. C., she had lived with her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Wyld at Victoria and Shawinigan for the past twelve years. She was a graduate of the 1218 Class at St. Joseph's Hospital, and since graduating has been taking a well-earned rest to recuperate from the strain of the long spell of overwork occasioned by the influenza epidemic last year, before embarking upon her career as a nurse. With this end in view she left for San Francisco on a visit to her parents only three weeks ago, and at the time of her departure was seemingly in good health. The sympathy of a wide circle of friends will go out to her relatives in their bereavement.

PARKVILLE INSTITUTE.

Parkville Women's Institute held their monthly meeting November 5, when fifteen member and three visitors attended. The pictures, which were presented by the Navy League for the local school, were passed around and greatly admired, and it was decided to get a part of them framed. Members were informed about the up-land Committee which was one of the Resolutions at the Conference, and the electing of the president from the floor of the meeting. Members took part in the dance on Armistice Day, in aid of the Navy League, under the auspices of the Institute. The president mentioned the coming of the Hon. E. D. Barrow on November 20, who will speak on "Agriculture," at which meeting the Institute members are asked by Mrs. C. Whitney-Griffiths to provide light refreshments. Miss Dashwood and Mrs. H. K. Harrison gave the Conference Report, but short days and pressure of time necessitated the latter part being left over till another meeting.

ELICITS INTEREST

Sir Frank and Lady Barnard
Patrons of Miss Scruby's Concert

Miss Maud Scruby's recital to be given at the Empress Hotel ballroom on Thursday, December 4, will have the distinguished patronage of the Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Barnard, as well as of the Victoria Ladies' Club, so that even at this early date there is evidence that the recital will bear the hallmarks of a social function as well as a musical feast.

The assisting artists will include Miss Eva Hart, soprano; Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green, pianist; and Miss Mary Icard, the violinist. One of the most attractive numbers on the programme will be an instrumental trio for piano, cello and violin.

At the Strand Theatre, Seattle, a motion picture house, a musical campaign has begun, under the Director S. K. Wineland, violinist, who features classical music as its principal "fare" instead of the "jazz." The management says that the improvement in the music has developed greater box receipts. Seattleites are proud of you.

SCHOOL ADOPTS NOVEL METHOD OF TEACHING MUSIC

Children Taught How to Appreciate and Criticize Music

Many people say they like music, but they do not know why they like it. At a concert they listen with special interest to the compositions with which having heard them a few times they are somewhat familiar, but because they were never taught to understand music, because during their school days instruction was confined to the learning (often only through very painful study) of a certain number of pieces, they are unable to appreciate music as it should be appreciated, and they soon get bored, says a writer in The London Daily Mail.

But this is being changed. In an increasing number of schools music appreciation is included in the curriculum. The idea is to teach the history of music, the literature of music to exercise the brain, to train the ear. It does not matter whether the pupils learn the instrumental music also or not, for even if they do not become actual musicians by this instruction they learn how to criticize and appreciate music thoroughly. On the other hand, no matter who instructs, a girl (or boy) learns to play, and even if she learns only singing, music appreciation should be studied at the same time. It does not alter the technique of music, but that, after all, is simply the mechanical side.

Cultivating the Music Brain.

At the Streatham Hill High School, London, this method of teaching music was started as long as 1911, and has since been carefully developed under the direction of Miss Elsie Murray. The classes are as interesting to the visitor as to the pupils themselves. The teacher, first naming the key, plays on the piano about a dozen single notes, and then tells the girls to write in them down in their music books. "Listen and hear the sounds." Be sure you have got the sounds in your head. "Think first before you write," are some of the directions she gives. When this has been done—a few mistakes may be made at first, for the girls are only about ten or twelve—the melody is sung to sol-fa.

"Only one scrap more concentration, and you've got it," says Miss Murray. Concentration is necessary to the appreciation of music, and the habit thus required is naturally invaluable during other studies.

Questions about time are asked, and then four bars of music written on the board and with a fault in the cadence are discussed. Four girls stand up and having been given the "doh," sing a perfect cadence in rhythm; another is asked to go to the piano, play the melody on the blackboard, and add her own cadence. For homework the pupils are told to write two phrases of their own, one answering to the other, with suitable cadences, so as to play them at the next lesson.

Then Miss Murray plays to the class, and she chooses a waltz by Polidini, and afterwards she asks how many like it and if there was anything remarkable about the piece. "What is the novel?" "Do you find the melody particularly varied?" Then, as she plays the melody slowly, the girls discover it is built up on two sounds, "doh" and "soh," trimmed up with all sorts of harmonies and different colors underneath.

Composer's First Steps.

Music should be an open book, to be read as easily and memorized as readily as prose and poetry. So pupils are taught to regard notes not as notes only, but sounds. Even quite little children are taught to hear and hum notes they say. For a class of advanced pupils a passage including treble and bass is written on the blackboard, the girls are told to memorize it, and after a short interval two, or three are requested to go to the piano and play it. Then certain singing exercises follow and, given "doh," the girls sing a perfect fifth, major seventh, and so on. Writing down a melody composed of chords when it has been played on the piano is part of the lesson, so too is the extemporizing of a short passage by one girl at one piano, the answering of it by another girl at another piano, and the criticism of it by the class. Miss Murray plays and afterwards discusses the pieces with the class, analyzing all its beauties.

With little children of six and seven the band is an enjoyable feature of their lesson in music appreciation. They play percussive instruments—drums, cymbals, triangles and tambourines—while a student plays the piano. As the children themselves select the various passages suitable for their particular instruments, the drums for instance, playing a certain bass passage needing to be emphasized, they learn both rhythm and the colors and shades of music. When older they also orchestrate for themselves. A child conducting while the class sings a nursery song is a most interesting method of teaching.

Saves Fuel and Food

The continued high cost of foodstuffs and household supplies require the strictest economy.

The most expensive foodstuffs are used in baking, so always be careful to use the right kind of Baking Powder, otherwise great waste may result.

Many thousands of people recommend

EGG-O Baking Powder

because it effects the greatest economy.

Its double action absolutely assures perfect baking at all times.

Egg-O also helps save fuel because it does not require so hot an oven as is required by other powders.

Always follow the directions—one level teaspoonful to one level cup of well sifted flour. You use from a quarter to a half less powder when you use Egg-O.

When buying Egg-O the larger tins are the most economical size for family use.

ing time. Then when they are "playing with their feet"—to call this dancing is not quite correct—the children learn by expressing sounds with the feet, standing on tip-toe, sliding, etc., the nature and duration of notes.

The newest and ideal method for teaching a child-music is for her to have a couple of years' instruction, when quite young, in music appreciation. She learns all about the staff from the very beginning (and not according to the old "a" "b" "c" "d" "e" method), the instruction of scales, time, the movements of wrists and fingers, the inside as well as the outside of a piano, so that when she begins to play an instrument she understands what music means, does not have to "pick out" her notes, and a great deal of drudgery is saved both for teacher and pupil.

NEW PIANIST WARMLY GREETED AT CLUB CONCERT

Mrs. G. G. Aitken Proves an Acquisition to Local Musical World

The somewhat small audience which braved the elements last night to attend the monthly concert of the Victoria Ladies' Musical Club at the Empress Hotel found themselves amply repaid for their enterprise by the very attractive programme given under the direction of Mrs. Jesse Longfield. A feature of more than usual interest was the introduction to local musical circles of Mrs. G. G. Aitken, formerly of Toronto, a pianist of unusual attainments. Her opening number on the programme, the first movement of the Beethoven Sonata, Op. 53, gave opportunity for the display of her excellent equipment of technique and musicianly understanding. The enthusiastic reception accorded to the pianist by the audience, led to an encore, a dainty little piece of smooth phrasing and tender expression. Her group in the second half of the programme embraced several compositions of lighter and more sprightly nature, and included: "What the Forest Brook Babbles" (Lidlin), "Song of the Boatmen" (Arr. by Cady), "Sprites of the Glen" (Denne), and as an encore "The Bell Song," a charming little number. The Ladies' Musical Club is to be congratulated on its newest "find," and it is evident that Mrs. Aitken's next appearance on the local concert platform will be awaited with eager anticipation.

Vocal numbers represented the remainder of the programme. Edmund Petch, always a popular favorite, delighted his audience with his singing of such old-time ballads as "Sally in Our Alley" (Carey), "Where'er You Walk" (Handel), and as an encore "The first group, 'To a Rose.' He was in excellent voice and was perhaps at his best in Coleridge Taylor's lovely number, 'Onaway, Awake Beloved,' from Hiawatha's Wedding Feast. Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson and Arthur Goring, two local singers, made a welcome reappearance after a long absence from the local concert platform, the former contributing several familiar ballads, including "Three Fishers Went Sailing," with pleasing expression. The fine quality of Mr. Goring's baritone was heard to advantage in the aria, "Dio Possente dio d'Amor," from Gounod's Faust, sung with dramatic effect, and in the rousing number "Shipmates O'Mine" (Sanderson). Mrs. James Cameron officiated as accompanist with much skill, adding considerably to the pleasure of the programme.

John McCormick, the noted Irish tenor, determined to become a singer at the age of eighteen, and at that time of his life his friends began proffering advice. His first position was as a choir singer at a salary of $125 a year. Shortly afterward he won the gold medal at the Fels tenor contest, and it was at this festival that he met another prize winner, Lily Foley, a soprano, who afterwards became Mrs. John McCormick. This was in May, 1903. His first visit to America was during the St. Louis World's Fair, where he and his future wife were engaged to appear twice daily in concert at the Irish Village in connection with the fair. About twelve months after this McCormick heard Caruso for the first time, and arranged to go to Italy for further study. It was then also that his first phonograph records were "made." In 1905 McCormick made his first operatic appearance, and his marriage was consummated twelve months after. In 1907 he was engaged to sing at two of the famous Boosey Ballad Concerts in London. These concerts were held in Queen's Hall on Saturday afternoons, and were attended by London's smartest people, as well as by the masses and Nothing makes a singer but brains, a good voice, good musicianship, and hard work." Of the public he also says: "People are now keen about music, and are becoming quite discriminating." Which is all quite true. And people, too, are becoming more and more critical, with a more intelligent criticism as to their likes and dislikes with both the artist and the selection.

About twelve months after this McCormick heard Caruso for the first time, and arranged to go to Italy for further study. It was then also that his first phonograph records were "made." In 1905 McCormick made his first operatic appearance, and his marriage was consummated twelve months after. In 1907 he was engaged to sing at two of the famous Boosey Ballad Concerts in London. These concerts were held in Queen's Hall on Saturday afternoons, and were attended by London's smartest people, as well as by the masses and lately encouraging to Belgian violin students, and in fact to all interested in the music of the violin throughout the world.

Paul Althouse, of the Metropolitan Opera Company says: "Too many young singers are inclined to think that a Metropolitan engagement makes them. It doesn't. Nothing makes a singer but brains, a good voice, good musicianship, and hard work." Of the public he also says: "People are now keen about music, and are becoming quite discriminating." Which is all quite true. And people, too, are becoming more and more critical, with a more intelligent criticism as to their likes and dislikes with both the artist and the selection.

John McCormick, the noted Irish tenor, determined to become a singer at the age of eighteen, and at that time of his life his friends began proffering advice. His first position was as a choir singer at a salary of $125 a year. Shortly afterward he won the gold medal at the Fels tenor contest, and it was at this festival that he met another prize winner, Lily Foley, a soprano, who afterwards became Mrs. John McCormick. This was in May, 1903. His first visit to America was during the St. Louis World's Fair, where he and his future wife were engaged to appear twice daily in concert at the Irish Village in connection with the fair. MOIST WEATHER IS GENERAL ON COAST

Rainfall Is Causing Milder Temperature For People in Alberta

People on the British Columbia coast have the satisfaction of knowing that the heavy rainfall they have been enduring for the last twenty-four hours is doing good for the people in Alberta and across the Rockies. The exceptionally heavy rains and storm hovering over this part of British Columbia is causing mild weather eastward over into Alberta, according to F. Napier Denison, Dominion Government Meteorological Superintendent at Gonzales Hill Station. There is a general southeast to southwest gale on this coast.

Although Victorians think the rainfall here has been terrible, Vancouver has been getting it twice to three times as heavy, the meteorological figures show.

For the twenty-four hours up to 3 o'clock this morning 1.41 inches of rain fell here. For the same period the rainfall at Esquimalt was 2.17 inches. In Vancouver for the twenty-four hours ending 5 o'clock this morning the fall was 3.26 inches.

The Robert Valentine Harvey Chapter, I. O. D. E., will hold an informal dance on Friday, December 5th, in the Orange Hall (opposite Alexandra Club). Cards for non-dancers. Tickets $1.00. Phone 5219L.

ORGANIZE TO CHECK HUGE FIRE LOSSES

Victoria Chapter of Fire Prevention League Is Formed

Formation of a Victoria Chapter of the Provincial Fire Prevention League was effected yesterday afternoon at a meeting of business men in the rooms of the Vancouver Island Fire Underwriters' Association. This action was taken following an address on fire prevention delivered at the Princess Theatre on Thursday evening by J. The following officers were elected: President, J. E. Wilson; vice-president, L. D. McLean; honorary secretary, Wellington J. Dowler. The following gentlemen composed a nominating committee to approach the various bodies and organizations in the city and request that they elect a representative each as members of the chapter: B. C. Nicholas, R. S. Day, L. D. McLean and Capt. Goodlake.

The purpose of the newly-formed chapter is to co-operate with the Provincial League in an endeavor to curtail the enormous wastage by fires in this Province. From time to time the chapter will arrange meetings at which authoritative speakers will appear.

Those present at yesterday's meeting were: Deputy Fire Chief Munroe, B. C. Nicholas, Montague D. Harbord, Robt. S. Day, J. E. Wilson, L. D. McLean, W. Walker, T. J. Goodlake, W. J. Dowler, Phil Austin and H. G. Garrett, Provincial Superintendent of Insurance, A. E. Jones and A. C. Flummerfelt.

A New Blood-Food Has Been Discovered That Works Wonders

SAID TO PUT NEW LIFE INTO PEOPLE THAT ARE RUN-DOWN.

For years doctors have been searching for a combination that would enable them to inject into blood the elements it lacked. This can now be done, and any weak-blooded person can quickly be made strong and well.

Already a small army of ailing people has proved the merit of taking after each meal with a sip or two of water, two chocolate-coated Ferrozone Tablets. This is easily done, and even one week's use of this wonderful blood-food will prove how nourishing and strengthening and flesh-building the treatment is. Just think of it—Ferrozone uplifts the entire nervous system, removes the blood, makes it rich and red—gives the sort of aid that's needed in throwing off weakness and languor. Tens of thousands enjoy the advantages of renewed health through Ferrozone; if you'll only use it, you'll surely grow strong too. Its beneficial action is noticed even in a week. You see it goes right to work, removes the causes of the trouble and then quickly makes a cure.

For those who sleep poorly and have nervous apprehensions, Ferrozone is a boon; it is a specialist in such cases. Where there is paleness, poor appetite and languor, Ferrozone makes the patient feel like new in a few days. In tiredness, nerve exhaustion, spring fever and debility, the power of Ferrozone is known from coast to coast and universally used with grand results.

Let Ferrozone build you up, let it win you back to robust health—it will do so quickly if you give it the chance. Sold by all druggists, 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50. Remember the name Ferrozone.

Gonzales Chapter Meeting unavoidably postponed to December 9.

NAVAL VETERANS' MEETING CANCELLED

The meeting of the Naval Veterans which was to have been held at the Canteen, Esquimalt, tonight has been cancelled in order not to interfere with the mass meeting of returned soldiers and sailors to be held in the Drill Hall to discuss re-establishment.

NATURAL HISTORY

Local Society Held Interesting Meeting; New Fossil Found.

The meeting of the Natural History Society held on Monday last was one of the most interesting the society has held.

A large number of specimens were laid on the table and the business letters and topics were so numerous as to render it necessary to leave some of them over to the next meeting.

Amongst the specimens brought were potatoes infected with the "false wire worm," which is really an insect of the sub-order Myriapod. These may be done away with by means of trapping, and in England this is effected by planting a few potatoes in the proposed seedling area. The insects make for these and are destroyed. A mass of beautiful crystals was shown, these being described as a form of Fluorspar. This mineral is now being mined near Grand Forks and used for fluxing ores, for which it is very suitable. It is being shipped as far as Indiana for this purpose. Another form, Cryolite, is mined in Greenland and shipped by way of the States to Eastern Canada, where it is used in the electrolytic reduction of aluminum ores, at Shawinigan Falls. A collection of exceptionally large leaves from the various trees around Victoria were described and exhibited, while another member spoke of finding a fossil in a new locality and formation in the vicinity of William Head.

Ministering Circle.—The regular monthly meeting of the Ministering Circle of King's Daughters will be held in the rest room, Hibben Bone Building, at 8 o'clock on Tuesday, November 18.

Plans Must Lay Over.—On motion of Councillor Watson, the Saanich Council last night decided that in future all applications for approval of sub-division plans should await action until the meeting following the presentation of the plans to the Council. He claimed that more careful examination should be made before any further plans are approved.

Will Arrive Next Week.—Frederick L. Rawson, C. E., the well-known engineer of London, England, who is touring Canada, will be in Victoria next week from Thursday to Sunday. The day he arrives there will be a gathering in the evening, at which Mayor Porter will preside and meetings daily at 12 and 3 at the New Thought Temple, with evening meetings at the Crystal Theatre.

$1,600 A Minute

THE insurance companies of America pay out to their policyholders and beneficiaries during the year an average of about $1,600 per minute for every working hour during the year.

Life insurance is no longer a theory. Nearly two hundred years ago it was established upon a thoroughly scientific foundation and to-day there are no other institutions more entirely dependable than the life insurance companies of the world.

The amount of good accomplished by the life companies is incalculable. Homes have been saved from the mortgagee; widows delivered from lives of slavish toil; sons and daughters have been educated and made useful and influential citizens—all through the good offices of the life insurance companies. But only those who have personally invested in life insurance secure its benefits for their families.

The Mutual Life of Canada is among the pioneers in Canadian Life Insurance and has proved its quality by nearly fifty years of ever increasing usefulness. Our insurances amount to over—

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short, and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion. All communications must bear the name and address of the writer, but not for publication unless the owner wishes. WHY NOT DOG SALMON?

To the Editor,—As a resident of the Cowichan district I was much interested in reading in your valued paper of the proposal to utilize the hides and carcasses of stray dogs in your city. I commend those of your aldermen who have taken to heart the lesson of the past four "lean" years and are at once eliminating a source of annoyance and conserving a valuable material. I would suggest that, as the Fishery Commission which recently sat in Duncan have established the fact that there is no decrease in the supply of dog salmon, the aldermen should look into the possibilities of augmenting their source of supply by working in conjunction with the Duncan City Council and obtaining the dog salmon skins, thus finding a larger source of supply and insuring an increased output from their tannery.

NO EXCLUSIVE RIGHT.

To the Editor,—Several times lately I have noticed that in the want advertisements for men they nearly all read "none but returned soldiers need apply."

I for one think that this is going a little bit too strong. Why should the returned men have it all, and what about the dependents of the men that have given up their lives for the country? Should they not have a chance to earn their living too?

One case in particular that came to my notice was that of an old man whose son was killed in the war. He was trying to procure a situation and was asked "Are you a returned man?" Upon his replying that he was not, as he was too old, but that his son who had helped to keep up the family had been killed at the front, he was told that that did not "cut any ice."

I think that this is too much. Of course the returned men should be helped and cared for, but they should not have the exclusive rights to all the jobs in the city.

AN OBSERVER.

MR. OLIVER REPLIES.

To the Editor:—I am enclosing, herewith, copy of letter which I am forwarding to the Editor of The Colonist.

I should be obliged if you would give the same space in your columns.

Yours truly,
JOHN OLIVER.
November 14, 1913.
Editor The Victoria Daily Colonist, Victoria, B.C.

Dear Sir,—Several editorials and newspaper articles relating to the Johnson Street Bridge, which, to my mind, have a tendency to mislead the public as to the real facts of the situation, have appeared in your paper. I am sorry that, at this juncture, I have not the time to deal with the situation at length. However, I cannot allow you to make assertions as to my position or in respect of the relation of the Government to this undertaking, without entering a protest.

Referring to your editorial of this morning, which is based upon the premise that the City Council is acting upon my advice, you say:

"It would be a piece of foolishness to build it (the bridge) in juxtaposition to the existing railway bridge."

This is simply a bald statement, and you make no statement of facts to substantiate your position, which, to say the least, is a very debatable one. Further on in your editorial you state:

"Premier Oliver's standpoint is that such a bridge should be for the use of all, which means that it will cost as much if not more than was estimated in the first instance."

Here, again, you make a bare statement without any evidence in support of same, and a statement which I venture to contradict in its entirety.

I say:

"We reiterate that before anything is done about a separate bridge a ruling should be obtained from the Railway Commission or the Public Works Department at Ottawa."

I do not know why a ruling should be obtained from either of these bodies prior to consideration of the course to be pursued by the City Council. You do not advise your readers what is the question to be submitted to either of the bodies named. You simply make this bald assertion which leads your readers to infer that there is some other course of action, other than that already taken, which the Government or the Council should take.

Then, again, you state:

"The situation is at such an impasse that an impartial body which has national rights in the premises, inasmuch as the harbor is to be bridged, should be called in to adjudicate."

But, again, you fail to state what are the questions to be submitted and adjudicated upon by this impartial body.

You state:

"The citizens of Victoria will not contemplate the idea of two bridges side by side with any equanimity."

I state, to say the least, is a very debatable one.

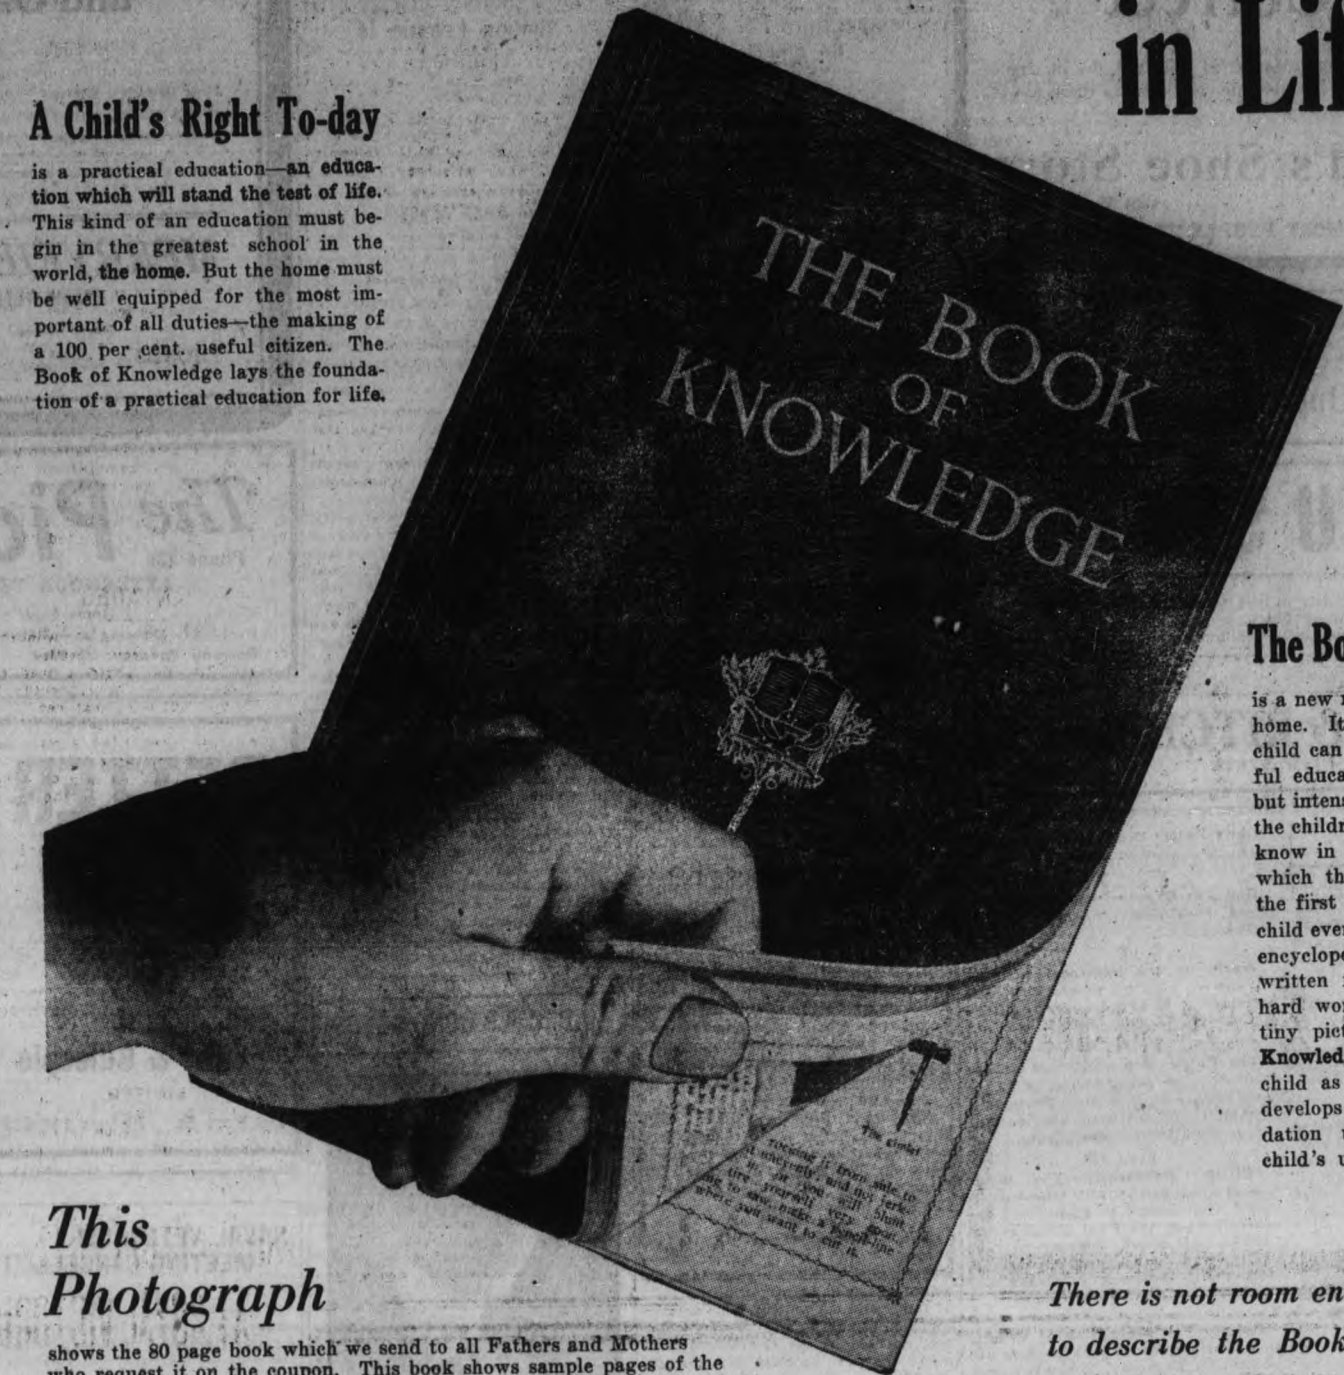

You finish up your article as follows:

"At the point where matters have

The Key to Your Child's Success in Life!

is a practical education—an education which will stand the test of life. This kind of an education must begin in the greatest school in the world, the home. But the home must be well equipped for the most important of all duties—the making of a 100 per cent. useful citizen. The Book of Knowledge lays the foundation of a practical education for life.

The Book of Knowledge

is a new method of education in the home. It answers every question a child can ask. Over 10,000 delightful educational pictures and brief but intensely interesting articles tell the children everything they need to know in plain and simple language which they can understand. It is the first work of reference which a child ever really enjoys reading. The encyclopedias of the day were not written for the young, with their hard words, long dull articles and tiny pictures. But the Book of Knowledge develops the mind of a child as naturally as the sunshine develops the flower—it is the foundation upon which is built the child's ultimate success.

reached now the immediate course to be adopted would appear to be to secure a ruling from some authentic source regarding the rights of the City to proceed with the plans for a separate bridge immediately beside the existing structure."

I venture to say that this assertion is the most ridiculous one which you have made for some considerable time—that the governing body of the capital city of British Columbia should not have a right even to prepare a plan for a bridge in which the City is vitally interested without having to secure a ruling of an unknown and undesignated body as to their right to prepare such a plan. In contradiction, I venture to state that, in my opinion at least, the City has the right to prepare any plan in connection with construction of a bridge across the harbor of Victoria, and to submit such plan for the approval of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under the provisions of the "Navigable Waters Protection Act."

I wish now to refer to an article in your news columns under the heading, "May Clear Bridge Atmosphere To-Day," from which I quote as follows:

"A majority of the aldermen appear to have despaired of all hope of reaching a satisfactory settlement with the C. P. R. on this issue, despite the fact that Mr. Richard Marpole, executive agent of the company, wrote Mr. H. E. Beasley, General Superintendent of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway Company, instructing him to sign the agreement with the no-competition clause omitted on the understanding that final decision as to the company's rights are to be determined by the Board of Railway Commissioners."

This paragraph contains the statement that Mr. Beasley had been instructed to sign the agreement with the no-competition clause omitted.

At the meeting held yesterday between myself, the Mayor and members of the City Council, this matter was thrashed out very fully, and neither the Mayor nor the aldermen had anything in writing to show that the Company was willing to sign an agreement with the no-competition clause omitted. On the contrary, copies of communications placed in my hands are utterly inconsistent with any such contention. I quote as follows:

Victoria, B.C., Nov. 10, 1913.
His Worship Mayor R. J. Porter, Victoria, B.C.

Dear Sir,—Re Johnson Street Bridge Agreement. I have just received a wire from Mr. Marpole to present the proposition of changing the clause with regard to the use of the bridge by either railway companies to read as follows:

"Clause begins: 'Provided, however, that if the B. C. Electric Railway shall at any time desire to use the said bridge for other than passenger street cars it may be permitted to do so upon terms to be fixed by agreement between the parties of fair and adequate compensation to the Railway Company for the exercise of such privilege.' Clause ends."

"Secondly, if the above is not agreeable the management suggests that the Company sign the agreement in its entirety, the clause in dispute to be settled by the chairman of the Railway Commission on his first visit to the coast."

Yours truly,
H. E. BEASLEY,
General Superintendent.

The offer of the Railway Company, as will be seen from the above-quoted letter, is for a substitute clause which would have the above effect of making it a part of the agreement that the City Council agree to the Railway Company had a right in the premises, that tolls should be exacted for the use of the bridge by other than the B. C. Electric Railway Company, and that a portion at least of said tolls should be to the benefit of the Railway Company.

The second proposal, that if the above is not agreeable, the Company sign the agreement in its entirety, I would ask you, Mr. Editor, to define what this means, but that the agreement should be signed with the competitive clause retained, and that some indefinite question should be referred to the chairman of the Railway Commission. To my mind, you might just as reasonably refer the question as to whether the City owns the City Hall, or the E. & N. Railway Company, to the decision of the Railway Commission.

Yours truly,
JOHN OLIVER,
Premier and Minister of Railways.

P. S.—Since dictating the foregoing, I have had an interview with Mr. Beasley, in which he advised that his proposal to the City was not to eliminate the objectionable clause, but to sign the agreement with it, and leave it to the Chairman of the further enhanced by the effective to details on the part of the man-

There's romance as well as human ture in which Bessie Barriscalle will

The play revolves around a subject somewhat similar to Bernard Shaw's

"Pygmalion"—ancestry versus envi-

VARIED VAUDEVILLE

AT ROYAL VICTORIA

"Overseas Revue" Leads

Highly Successful Bill

This Week

Vaudeville of uniformly entertaining features, quick moving and snappy, and of an unusually wide variety was offered at the Royal Victoria Theatre last evening, enhancing the reputation built up by the Orpheum Circuit since it opened the season here some months ago. The acts ranged all the way from a pretentious revue to the doings of one

Snoozer, a bull terrier of quite amazing intelligence.

If Elizabeth Brice and Will Morrissey achieved as high a standard of comedy when they appeared before the soldiers of the American Army in France in the stressful days of the last months of the war as they did last evening it is easy to understand the cause of their popularity with the fighters overseas. They call their melange "The Overseas Revue," and in it they are assisted by some fifteen others, including Tom McGuire, Lieut.

McPherson and a bevy of comely maidens, being especially successful in

"Salvation Sal," and Mr. Morrissey is master of a brand of humor sufficient to loosen up even the most misanthropic of human beings.

"Planocaps" was the programme's description of Al and Fanny Stedman's act, and the piano did play a large part in producing the humor,

but one felt the irrepressible pair would have garnered a flatteringly full harvest of laughs even if they had been deprived of the instrument.

Al is the pianist and Miss Stedman is the rest, and a most diverting eccentric comedienne she is.

"The Beginning of the World," presented by M. Tauber, proved to be a riot of color—a riot, but always controlled and varied by some mechanism concealed from the audience. A white screen and light were the simple materials of creation but the results were bewilderingly beautiful at times. Miss Lalluce embodied

"The Spirit of Color."

Frank Jerome and "Big" Herbert were, as the programme promised they should be, "versatile vendors of varieties." Herbert, who probably would find that Fatty Arbuckle's clothes would fit him without alteration, seemed to derive as much fun out of his capers as the audience did.

I Snoozer had not been a bull terrier doubtless he would have been a man. Certainly his intelligence is so far above that of his fellow terriers that he is a remarkable animal. His master concealed his signals so well that Snoozer had the appearance of simply listening to his commands and executing them.

The Musical Hunters opened the bill with numbers played on a varieties of instruments and an instalment of the All-Canadian Weekly movie serial, showing scenes during the visit of the Prince of Wales to Victoria, closed it.

Commerce Trucks Have Con-

Many Purposes

"The all-purpose truck body designed as the Every-Body and used on Commerce Trucks has been designed to meet the rapidly increasing demand for a motor truck body that will enable the farmer to use his truck economically to haul a load every way. It is so constituted that it will also find a market with city truck users because of the diversified loads it will carry," announce Milliken and Downer, local Commerce

The body is self contained, all parts that go to make up the various designs into which it can be converted are on the truck at all times, thus making it possible to change the body to suit any load at any time and any place. The body is well within the limits of weight recommended by automotive engineers and at the same time sufficiently rugged to withstand rough usage in country or city service.

All silos, floor boards, slats and stakes are of well seasoned oak; joints in floors being tongue and groove and panels being rabbeted into floor; all joints are made up with white lead. This gives a grain tight body, one that it is claimed will not absorb moisture and deteriorate.
All reinforcements have been designed to give maximum strength with minimum weight. When merchandise must be protected against the weather provisions are made for the use of a pallis.

The truck for farm use will haul grain to bags, bulky produce, farm produce in crates, cement in bags, barnyard fertilizer, poultry in crates,
farm machinery, dressed meats, fence posts, fruit and vegetables in baskets, boxes or crates, baled hay, wheat, oats or corn stalks, coal, dirt, gravel, hogs, cattle, sheep, cotton, sugar cane, apples, potatoes, melons and cabbages.

For city use it can be used to transport the raw material on one trip and bring back the finished product. It can be used as a passenger bus, service pick-up wagon, carrying bottles, baggage, express mail, wood, ice, furniture, hardware, fruit, dairy produce and other commercial pur-

Neuralgia and Other Severe

BIG PRICE PAID FOR HAIG'S CAR

Thirty-six hundred guineas were paid recently for the motor car used by Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig in France. The car was one of a number sold at auction by the order of the Ministry of Munitions, which is disposing of the surplus army stocks. The purchaser was a wholesale confectioner who, with a keen eye to advertisement, is going to send the car to his stores in various parts of the country so the public can see the historic vehicle.

As a result of the economy campaign several ministers have given up the cars placed at their disposal by the state during war time.
Some suggestions have been made that, while the example thus set is a good policy, it may prove a "penny wise and a pound foolish" one in practice. It would be good economy from the national point of view, it is argued, for the state to furnish the Prime Minister with a car, chauffeur, petrol and the rest, rather than require him to give his own time to looking after his own car which otherwise could be devoted to state affairs.

JUDGING THE MIXTURE.

If the mixture is suspected of being too rich, shut off the fuel in the tank and open the throttle. If the mixture passing into the cylinders is too rich the engine speed will increase as the level of the gasoline in the float chamber is lowered, since this operation weakens the mixture considerably.

If the mixture is thought to be too weak the float chamber can be flooded while the engine is running, and if this causes the motor to speed up it may be accepted as an indication that the mixture is not rich enough.

The average car owner does not realize how slight a bump may have a disastrous effect on the car's mechanism. The writer recently found a case where a comparatively slight bump against the curb bent a rear axle shaft, and this in turn caused excessive wear of the inner face of the right end roller bearing, so that the entire bearing had to be replaced.

CLEVELAND SIX IS FINE MODEL

Forty Thousand Cars of This Style Will Be Marketed
This Season

Thousands of automobile buyers will welcome the arrival of the Cleveland Sixes, which are now on show at the spacious headquarters of Thomas Plimley. The car is built by engineers and producers of the highest rank, and the output is fully tested.

The manufacturers claim that the Cleveland Six far exceeds the sanguine expectation of prospective purchasers, both in appearance and performance.

The deep frame, the strong axles, the resilient spring suspension, the high-grade transmission, the Timken bearings throughout, tell a story of all-round fitness that men seek.

And the wonderful motor—the heart of any motor car—reveals qualities of flexibility, of power and of endurance that makes the first year programme of forty thousand Cleveland Sixes seem all too meagre for the demand already so astonishingly evidenced.

By adroit engineering more legroom than in cars of even longer wheelbase is provided. This applies to all models. The seats are upholstered in genuine long grain handbuffed leather. There is extraordinary comfort for the passengers.
Doors are wide and are all provided with flap pockets. The top is of exceptionally pleasing lines and is equipped with door opening curtains and bevel glass rear window.

Positive character is dominant in this car. Strong sturdiness and unusual comfort and roominess are united with marked economy of operation.

These are not mere statements or claims. They are facts which the car itself will verify. Back of them is a three-year period of exhaustive test and development, not of one but of many Cleveland Sixes. Back of them is the combined skill, experience and genius of a group of men who have made a distinguished success building fine cars. Back of them is an unparalleled reputation for giving the utmost for the money.

But, more important than specifications is the sincere determination and already proven ability of the pro-

Gus Masters Garage on View Street
Inaugurates Storage Feature.

"As we have plenty of room for storage of cars, we are making special arrangements for our patrons in order that they may enjoy the greatest possible convenience through keeping their cars with us," says Gus Masters, used car dealer and repair man, whose garage is located at 1003 Vancouver Street adjoining Miliken & Downer's. Monthly tenants are given keys and are free to go into the garage at any time, clean their cars or give them such other attention as may be required. This is a new feature that is sure to become popular, says Mr. Masters, who has a very extensive storage space in his garage.

"The used car business is good, and we have a fine line of cars of various makes, all of which are in fine shape. We make it a practice to buy and repair cars and put them on the market on easy terms. Our garage is fully equipped to handle all classes of work and supply our patrons with whatever is needed," said
Mr. Masters.

A motorist recently found a case where a comparatively slight bump against the curb bent a rear axle shaft and this in turn caused excessive wear of the inner face of the right roller bearing, so that the entire bearing had to be replaced.

BEST DESIGNS USED
IN PATRIOT TRUCKSBlanchard & Steele Expect
Two Carloads Next Week

"Patriot trucks are equipped with solid and pneumatic tires and we fit them out as the patron wishes," announce Blanchard and Steele, whose garage is located at 1052 Fort Street. "Since we obtained this agency only a few months ago, we have enjoyed exceptional success in the sale of these trucks and the demand still keeps up."

Two carloads of Patriots are due to reach Victoria from the factories about November 20, and it is anticipated that others will be on their way immediately.

The local distributors find that the favorites here are those of the 1500-3000, 3000-5000 and 5000-7000 pound class. These trucks are all built on standard units, which means that parts can be replaced without annoying delays. Among the features of the Patriot trucks are the continental motors, timken bearings, brown-line transmission, gemmer steering gear and various other high class features.

The trucks are designed with a view to quick dismantling, and are after the United States war model, the engineer engaged on the design having been attached to the board of designers for American war requirements.

PRODUCTION MARK
REACHES A RECORDSteel and Coal Strike Does Not Affect Automobile Output

What with the big steel strike, followed closely by the coal strike, the great automobile manufacturers have had a busy time of it skimming about to find means whereby the production could be kept somewhere within speaking distance of the demand. The happy solution of the labor difficulties gives the manufacturers another breathing spell, and in the meantime production will be speeded up. Fortunately, most of the big factories had a good supply of coal in stock and among most of the makers no serious trouble was experienced in this respect.

In Detroit, the great automobile manufacturing centre, where a good many of the makes of cars sold in Victoria are turned out, a high production mark was set for October. With an output of 7,445 cars during the month, the thirty-four automobile factories reporting established a record for 1919, April coming second, with a total of 7,089 cars.

Despite the steel strike and other handicaps, which it was feared might retard production, the industry shows healthy activity, and plans for expansion have been formulated at every factory to meet the constantly increasing demands.

The Export Problem.

The export problem, which began to loom large immediately after the armistice, has not been solved, and as one manufacturer put it, Latin America, England, France, Italy, Belgium and Sweden are "hungry for cars." In a majority of instances the manufacturers have been giving some little attention heretofore to export trade, but they realize that the growing demand makes extensions and expansion imperative.

It is conceded even by the foreign manufacturers that they cannot reach quantity production to satisfy the demand.

Paige-Detroit Motor Car Co., W. D. Cartier, local agent, with four representatives in the foreign field, has enlarged its export department and will devote much of the output to the foreign trade during 1920.

Dodge Bros., Begg Motor Co., local distributors, who have been in the export market for some years, will make no special effort to increase their foreign business. They contend that it simply is a matter of production and at present it is a physical impossibility for them to expand their export business save at the expense of their patrons in America.

The Hupp Motor Car Corp., R. E. McMorran, representative here, will make a bid for a large portion of the foreign business and will give as large a percentage of its business to export trade as any other manufacturer.

The clamor from foreign distributors easily would consume the entire Cadillac output, according to officials of that company. So insistent are demands that the officials declare the foreign trade will take every car, with or without wheels.

Trucks Also Demanded.

Foreign demand for trucks is equally great. The Olds Motor Works, at Lansing, Shell Garage, Agents, shipped 500 trucks to England last week, and additions are being completed to the plant which will

The Road—As It Is and As It Seems In Overland 4 on Three-Point Suspension Springs

UNTIL the advent of Overland 4 bad roads rode just as they looked.

Until the introduction of the Overland 4 Spring-base, a road full of bumps meant jolts for the passengers and vibration that racked the car and reduced its life.

Overland 4 does not change the road, but it does change the manner in which you can ride on it. It gives you comfort instead of discomfort. It gives you a smooth, sailing sensation instead of bouncing and swaying.

This comfort achievement, the greatest since the introduction of pneumatic tires, is made possible by the wonderful cushioning ability of Three-Point Suspension Springs—exclusive with Overland.

The Diagonal attachment of the Three-Point Suspension Springs at the ends of a 130-inch frame gives the road steadiness achieved by a car of long wheelbase.

Yet Overland 4 retains all the advantages—lightness, economy, and ease of handling, of 100-inch wheelbase.

Rough roads present no difficulties for Overland 4. Cushioned by its new system of suspension, which has been tested over 250,000 miles, it swings with buoyancy over good roads and bad. Shock, sway and rebound are absorbed.

Besides an altogether new standard of riding comfort this means a noteworthy reduction in the wear and tear which lessen the efficiency of the car. It gives longer life to every part and thus minimizes upkeep and replacement costs.

Tires wear longer because cushioned against hammering blows. Light weight means marked economy in gas, oil and running expense.

Overland 4's equipment is no less admirable than its construction. The list is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting to Demountable Rims.

Come in and see this remarkable car. Ask for Booklet. Overland 4 Touring, $1195; Roadster, $1195; Coupe, $1845; Sedan, $1995. Prices f. o. b. Toronto, War Tax included.

WHILE YOU WAIT

Simonizing Station Undertakes to Keep Cars Cleaned.

W. H. Hughes, manager of the Simonizing Station, Yates Street, announces that he has inaugurated a car-cleaning system whereby automobile owners may have their cars washed and cleaned while they wait. A staff of men is kept on hand particularly for this purpose and there is no delay whatever in having the work done.

"A great many car owners do not realize that it pays to keep the surface of their cars clean at all times and it never pays to allow mud or grit to harden on the highly polished surface as mud-stains and scratches result and soon the car begins to lose its high class appearance. During the winter months I decided that by inaugurating a "clean while you wait" service a great convenience would be placed in the way of the automobile owner," said Mr. Hughes.

NEW MODEL HUPS HAVE FINE FEATURES

R. E. McMorran, Local Distributor, Elated Over 1920 Design

The 1920 Hupmobiles displayed at R. E. McMorran's show rooms on Johnson Street are attracting a great deal of interest, according to Mr. McMorran.

"It is beautiful. It is powerful. And in addition it has numerous refinements which add to the ease with which it may be handled and to the comfort of the rider," says Mr. McMorran.

"The 1920 'Hup' maintains the general Hupmobile lines of other models. However, the radiator is higher and wider, giving a larger cooling surface and thereby insuring a more efficient engine cooling.

"The engine is the same sturdy type that has made the Hupmobile one of the most popular road cars. The fear that runs like an eight is the complaint, said the Hup motor. On hills it is said to be one of the best cars in use.

"Heavier wheels and axles and a heavier steering system are also features of the new car. This makes it easier to keep in the road at its highest speeds. With the improved control and excellent engine qualities the car is attracting even more attention than ever among motorists.

"The 1920 Hupmobile comes factory equipped with Alemite lubricating system. This is the first automobile to come from the factory equipped with the new lubricating system. That the Alemite lubrication is one of the big features of the new car is the general belief among those who have seen the machine.

"The new 1920 Hupmobile comes out with a number of refinements which tend to make it an even better machine than the 1919 models.

"The additions are not radical changes in design or construction, as such is not necessary. Any owner of a 1919 'Hup' will say that it is about as near perfect as an automobile can be.

"However, a number of refinements which tend to make driving more convenient for the man at the wheel and the installation of systems such as the Alemite, which tend to make the care of the car easier for the owner have been made.

"The finish on the Hupmobile of the new series is the same excellent type that has featured all models. The car retains the same wonderful pickup and power on hills that it always has had. Taken all in all, the 1920 Hupmobile is just what the motorist has been waiting for."

Overland Dealers in Meeting.—Overland dealers to the number of 60 from all parts of Manitoba met at Winnipeg last week in a convention called for the purpose of introducing the new Overland Four.

Cars in Ontario.—From January 1, 1919, to August 31, 1919, approximately 120,000 passenger car permits and 9,500 motor truck permits have been issued by the Ontario Department of Highways. For the whole of last year there were issued 101,599 permits for passenger cars and 7,529 permits for motor trucks.

Millions For Roads.—Bond issues of counties of highway districts in Idaho for road purposes so far this year have reached $11,090,000, and by December 31 will be $15,000,000, according to W. J. Hall, public works commissioner. In addition to this the state has levied a tax to raise $1,850,000 for road purposes in the next two years. Only $3,360,138 is available from federal aid for 1917 to 1921 and this allotment has long been reached by the state.

Many New Cars in Quebec.—It is anticipated that by the end of 1919 there will be nearly 40,000 cars in the province of Quebec, which means an increase of 14,000 over the figures for 1918. When this is compared with 284 cars, the total in 1907, it can readily be seen how rapid the growth of the motor industry has been here. Last year 26,338 cars in the province, and for five years the average increase has been about 5,000 cars a year. In the first year after the war the demand for cars has trebled, and there are hundreds of motorists who have disposed of their used machines.

Linking Two Highways.—Completion of the Louisiana sections of two of the great transcontinental highways passing through the state by January 1, 1920, is promised by the state highway department, of which Duncan Buie is chief engineer. These roads are the Jefferson Highway, virtually completed through seven states, and the Southern National Highway, better known as the Old Spanish Trail, which begins at Jacksonville, Fla., and runs across the continent to San Diego. Average cost of these highways is $10,000 a mile, and the money is in hand for the construction of both lines within Louisiana.

Revenue From Cars.—Massachusetts registered more than 200,000 motor vehicles for the first eight months of this year. This is the first time that figure was reached. The exact number was 203,450. Of this total 165,515 were cars and 37,935 were commercial vehicles. The gain over the entire year of 1918 was 28,177 machines. This divided between cars and trucks showed a gain for cars of 22,904 and for trucks 5,273.

The Highway Commission has taken in $2,460,024.44 from motorists

Beware Front Skid.—Whenever a motor accident occurs, we are pretty sure to see in the papers that it was caused by the failure of the steering gear or by the bursting of a tire or similar stock reason. In most cases this given reason is really wide of the mark. There are many accident causes in which failure of the mechanism does not enter at all. One of the most dangerous misapprehensions the motorist meets is a front wheel skid, when the car gets completely out of control and probably brings up against the curb or a telegraph pole.

TREMENDOUS TRAFFIC.

Motor traffic in London and New York is compared in connection with records kept in both cities as to the number of vehicles passing the seventeen most important and busiest corners in ten hours, New York, and twelve hours, London.

The records for New York was 274,305 for ten hours, and about the same number for London for twelve hours. The report shows that in London 23,735 passed Piccadilly, while in New York 39,210 passed at Columbus Circle.

Around the engine and other parts of the car there are supposedly tight joints in addition to actual openings. Take the front and cover, commonly called the timing gear case cover. Vibration may loosen a few of the holding nuts, allowing the cover to move away from the crankcase a small fraction of an inch. With an accumulation of dirt over the cover, some of the dirt is bound to get to the gear teeth. Dirt and lack of lubrication of front end gears are responsible for rapid wear and noisy operation.

Don't skid, turn sharp or stop quickly when you can avoid doing so. Sharp turns do more damage than sharp stops. Quick stops are apt to collisions for all 'round damage to tires and car, while skidding is tire destruction at par.

The Hacking Cough Strains the Lungs

The terrible, hacking, lung-wracking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it is allowed to stick the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of the cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Samuel Matthews, Portage, P. E. I., writes:—"Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for sometime. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night, and did not think I could ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me, and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got relief, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone. I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper, 3 pine trees the trade mark, price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HEALTH FOR THE BABY

The baby of to-day is the man or woman of to-morrow. Thus the success of the future man or woman depends upon the baby's present welfare. If the baby is sickly and ill nourished it is not to be expected that he will grow into a strong, active man who will hold his own in the business world a few years hence. Mothers it is a duty you owe the future to keep your little ones well now. This can be easily done if Baby's Own Tablets are kept in the house. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus make baby healthy and strong. Concerning them Mrs. W. Orser, Elginburg, Ont. writes: "I have a fine healthy boy of three years and have used Baby's Own Tablets for him ever since he was a small baby. I certainly think them a splendid medicine." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION PLANNED

During the first two weeks of October, 1920, Tokyo, Japan, will be the scene of the eighth convention of the World's Sunday School Association. The last convention was held in Zurich, Switzerland, July, 1915, when the invitation was extended to hold the next convention in Tokyo, and unanimously accepted. The war prevented in 1916, but the enthusiasm has increased during the intervening years, and thousands of enquiries and letters requesting information have been received.

The convention is backed by a Promoting Committee of sixty of Japan's leading men and a committee representing the missionary, and native Sunday School forces.

It is probable that the theme of the convention will be "The Sunday School and World Progress." The programme will emphasize the missionary and church advance. The world's outstanding Christian statesmen, educators, Sunday School and church workers will be drawn upon to present the different day-by-day themes.

Sightseers will not be accepted as delegates. Each person wishing to go will have to have the proper credentials from the pastor of the local church, the state or provincial Sunday School secretary, as well as the association.

There is a choice of ten tours, including Tokyo convention and travel through Japan, ranging in price from $40 to $125. This price includes first-class passage on all Trans-Pacific steamships, first-class rail travel in the respective countries visited in accordance with itinerary; hotel accommodation for the time specified in each tour, which provides bedroom and board, all conveyances, guides, interpreters.

DR. GOULD COMING

Anglican Leader Will be in the City on Monday.

A telegram received this morning by the Bishop of Columbia states that Dr. Gould will spend Monday next in the city. Special meetings have been arranged, to which all Anglicans in the city are invited and at which Canon Gould will deliver an address. On Monday afternoon a meeting planned especially for women will be held in Christ Church Cathedral schoolroom at 5 o'clock. In the evening Dr. Gould will meet members of Forward Movement committees, and later will speak at a meeting in St. Saviour's schoolroom, Victoria West. Dr. Gould, who is one of the foremost and eloquent preachers of the Church of England in Canada, is the organizing secretary for the Anglican Forward Movement throughout the Dominion.

NEED OF CHURCH IS A LIVING THEOLOGY

London, Nov. 15.—The unloving of the Christian Churches was touched upon in a non-committal fashion by the Archbishop of Canterbury in his sermon at the opening of the Church Congress at Leicester. He said he would utter no dictum on the practical questions under debate, but gave the assurance that there was no intention of shelving the problems and adjured the impatient to wait for the deliberations of the 250 to 300 fathers of the Church from all quarters of the globe who, in nine months, will be meeting at Lambeth.

A pessimistic vein ran strongly through Bishop Gore's sermon. "Except in the vaguest sense, you cannot call England a Christian country," he said. "Not merely is it that, in every class, those holding the Christian faith are in a minority, but there is widespread revolt against the principles of Christianity. The demand for free divorce, the open acquiescence in fornication as being inevitable, and what is euphemistically called 'birth control,' are evidences of this one department of life. It would not astonish us to witness a reign of Anti-Christ or many Anti-Christians in our modern world."

The big, robust, and jovial-looking Bishop of Peterborough also spoke trenchantly in his presidential address on the fallings of the Church. "The need of the Church and the need of the nation," he declared, "is a living theology."

Observers had expressed the opinion that the splendid qualities displayed by our soldiers were unrelated to religion and that their ideas of God were vague and flimsy in the extreme. "The fact is," he continued, "that our people at large do not know what God is like or what He can do."

"Dry-bones" Worship.
"If we do not take pains to explain God, other people will. This is why Christian Science, theosophy, and spiritualism enjoy an increasing opportunity. They attempt to state in terms which are modern and practical the fact of God and man's relation to Him."

"The worship in thousands of our churches can hardly be used to reflect even a glimmering of God. The dry bones are there, whether of ceremonial or the lack of it, but there is no breath."

The Bishop next spoke of the railway strike, and the one who has made a study of labor questions, even going incognito to labor congresses, he spoke with knowledge.

He claimed that the strike would be a landmark in our industrial life from the fact that the other great trade unions, so far from fomenting trouble, were the mediators who brought about a settlement.

The chairman of the negotiating committee, added the Bishop, had interpreted the meaning of the strike in words which could not be ignored when he said it was symptomatic of a movement for fuller share in the control of industry as to the status of a partner. Of this the Church had two things to say—first, that that ideal was the Christian ideal of the larger fellowship, and, secondly, that it could only be obtained by patience, forbearance, and order.

The selection of Mr. George Lansbury as one of the conference speakers has aroused controversy, and Mr. Abbeism Riley, even withdrew from the congress in protest. However, congress heard with patience, if not with enthusiasm, the speech in which Mr. Lansbury attacked the League of Nations and preferred the Workers' Internationale as creating the real spirit of comradeship among peoples.

Even Lord Eustace Percy, whose paper was read in his absence, sees nothing heroic in the League, and warned the Church against hailing it as the hope of the world, but he sees much useful work that it can do complish. Incidentally he gave the congress a shock by his declaration that, though Christendom inherited war, it had developed it, systematized it into a science, and intensified its horrors.

CHURCH LAUNCHES

NEW WORK AMONG YOUNG PEOPLE

Specialist Appointed as Director to Take Charge of Department.

Extension of the work of the First Presbyterian Church through the organization of a department of Young People's Work with a full-time specialist at its head and in full control, was announced to-day by the Rev. John Gibson Inkster, pastor of the church. The department will be inaugurated on December 1.

At the same time Rev. Mr. Inkster announced the appointment to the office of Director of Young People's Work of Capt. Aubone Bootteroy Hoyle. Capt. Hoyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hoyle, of 301 Vancouver Street. His father was for thirty years a missionary in Spain. The captain's wife is a daughter of Major Owen, of Vancouver.

The financing of the new department of the church has been made by a number of members of the church and other business men. Capt. Hoyle will have complete charge of the work among young people in the church, taking all these activities of the hands of the pastor. A committee representing the session has been appointed to define the duties of the director.

Direct Young People's Activities.

"This department of the church has been created because the need of special attention to the young people of the church and direction of their activities is vital," said Rev. Mr. Inkster, in making the announcement. "There is cause for fear that religious and social work among young people is neglected by the church. It is our duty to the rising generation that will carry on after us to see that their activities are directed along right lines." Capt. Hoyle will organize and have full charge of social work among young people, the athletic activities and religious instruction. The big gymnasium in the basement of the church with the shower baths, locker rooms and other athletic equipment is placed under his charge for the athletic work. A new series of club rooms has just been completed for carrying on the social work.

Needs Special Qualifications.

The director with his wife will also visit young people in their homes, boarding houses and hotels to stimulate their interest in church activities. Efforts will be made to bring within scope of the organization young people not now affiliated with any church.

"This work is all of a special character and requires special qualifications," Rev. Mr. Inkster added. "I feel that I am incapable of properly carrying on the work among young people as it requires for its successful direction one of younger years, and one better adapted and trained for it."

Military Record.

Capt. Hoyle went overseas in 1915 and was adjutant to reinforcements for the 58th Battalion. In England he was transferred to the Machine Gun Corps and at Seaford qualified as machine gun marksman. Because of his automobile experience he was posted to the 2nd Canadian Motor Machine Gun Brigade when the war broke out. During the advance from Arras, he commanded a battery of armored cars in reconnaissance work of the enemy's positions, cleaning up machine gun nests and at times piercing the German lines in surprise attacks. After the Armistice, he was at Boulogne until May, 1919, he was brigade sports officer in charge of all games and recreations.

Active in Sunday School Work.

Before the war Capt. Hoyle was engaged for two years in Christian work with the Children's Special Service Mission at seaside resorts in England and in charge of the Norwood Boys' Brigade in South London. In Victoria he was general superintendent of the Tabernacle Baptist Sunday School for two years and of the Reformed Episcopal Church for the same length of time. During 1915 he was president of the Victoria District Sunday School Association and one of the governors of the Victoria Sunday School Athletic Association. While he was in England, he held services at the Wesleyan Soldiers' Home and conducted the great "sing-songs" there.

FAMILIARIZE PUBLIC WITH THE SCRIPTURES

In endorsing the suggestion that the story and teaching of the Bible be made familiar to the people of Ontario, the Local Council of Women of Toronto has decided against another suggestion offered at the same time, that the four Gospels be used as text books in the public schools. It was held that the Gospels could not be taught and studied without interpretation which would involve differences of religion.

Endorsement was also given to the suggestion that a course in citizenship be inaugurated for the last year of compulsory school attendance, which has now been made the sixteenth year of the pupil's age. A resolution embodying the principles of a minimum wage for women and the establishment of juvenile courts, with women judges in every town was also endorsed. All resolutions and suggestions came from the Ontario Women's Citizens' Association.

After 2000 Years This Pagoda Still 'Lives'

OLDER than Christianity, itself, this Chinese sacred tower in which are said to repose the spirits of the dead, can still be seen bright and lustrous and in a perfect state of preservation. Just as the pagodas are still guarded jealously by priests, so the mystery of their preservation was also kept a secret. To-day, this secret, the oil of a nut grown in Northern China, is known to the Occidental.

China nut oil is one of the two principal ingredients of BAPCO FLOOR VARNISH. This, combined with a fossilized gum found in the Antipodes (which after once being melted together, can never again be affected by heat, acid, water, alcohol, etc.), has made it possible to treat surfaces treated with BAPCO varnish by 20 minutes' boiling without injury.

A wonderfully lustrous, transparent varnish possessed of powers of endurance almost beyond belief, is the result of this remarkable combination of China nut oil and fossilized gum. For your floors, sidings, furniture, etc., it is without equal. To be had in five natural wood colors. Stain and varnish—two in one.

Order from your dealer. If he doesn't have it he can get it for you.

Pacific Northwest Champion Suffers Defeat at Hands of Vancouver Novice

Rugged Fighter From Mainland Wins Reputation for Gameness—Dutch Hill in Good Form Against Tacoma Man

One of the P. N. A. titleholders who appeared on the Foundation boxing card at the clubhouse went down to defeat last night. By sheer aggressiveness and gameness, Joe Nestman got the decision over Moffatt, the 135-lb. P. N. A. champion, after an extra round had been fought.

After mixing it for three rounds with Charlie Martin, Nestman was game enough to step into the ring to meet Moffatt, the P. N. A. 135-lb. champion. Martin, Announcer Billy Kennedy informed the audience, having entered the ring against doctor's orders and not wishing to fight in the final. After the first round, with the honor slightly in favor of the champion, the stockily-built Vancouver man was aggressive the whole of the second stanza. He lacked an effective straight left, but handed out a lot of punishment nevertheless. He tore into his opponent immediately the third round opened, backed him on to the ropes and had him looking like anything but a champion.

In the extra round the Vancouver man still used his forcing tactics and, although he failed to land with many hard clean drives, he forced his opponent all over the ring, had him several times on the ropes and wore him down. It was a popular decision with the fans when Billy Davies held up the Vancouver man's arm, the majority of them having called for a decision for Nestman before the extra round was fought. The visitor showed some pretty footwork, but never seemed to fathom the Vancouver boy's rugged style of fighting. Two blows which he struck after the final gong sounded were sufficient reason for the referee to give a decision against him.

The two newbies, Frank Matthews and Alfred Best, who opened the programme, fought three cautious rounds without their usual enthusiasm. An extra round was ordered and Best showed a tendency to hang on to his opponent and Matthews retained his laurels.

Hughie and Dave Burnett again proved themselves willing mixers and well worthy of a place on the bill. The lads got a hearty hand at the end of each round and Hughie once again got the decision over his elder brother.

In the first inter-city bout Dutch Hill, of Victoria, 125-lb. P. N. A. champion, met Harry Bradford, of Tacoma, and honors went to the local boy.

Both lads worked speedily from the start and swapped a lot of hard blows. The local boy shaped up like a more experienced ring man, and cleverly eluding the Tacoma man's swings, took the first round. He landed some telling body blows and straight lefts to open the second round in whirlwind style. He started aggressively, but before the gong sounded Hill was having the best of the fight. Bradford gave fewer openings, but the third round was a hard-fought one, and the Victoria man got home with a dozen well-judged punches. The fans gave the visitor a hearty cheer for his game exhibition as he left the ring.

Charlie Martin, of Victoria, got the decision over Joe Nestman, one of Charlie Clarke's proteges from Vancouver. There was a lot of wild swinging, and the Vancouver man found it hard to find the shifty longshoreman, although he was aggressive the whole distance.

McIntyre fought over a classy ring man in Cuijig, to meet Stanton, of Victoria, in the 158-lb. class. Cuigis seemed in perfect condition and got the decision after three rounds in which both men showed a me real ring science with the Tacoma man having the edge throughout. Cuijig did not open out much until a few seconds before the gong sounded for the end of the second round and then landed half a dozen effective body blows. Stanton went to his corner blowing, but the visiting fighter was unruffled. Cuijig got the decision at the end of three rounds in which neither man was much hurt.

Tommy and Herbert Best, two clever dustweights, entertained the crowd with a three-round exhibition. Jimmy Clark and E. Bailey acted as judges with Billy Davies as referee. W. N. Kennedy made a capable announcer.

TIGERS PLAY TO-DAY WITHOUT THEIR LEADER

Winnipeg, Nov. 15.—The Tammany Tigers, including a party of some twenty, left last night over the Grand Trunk Pacific for Regina to engage the Saskatchewan champions in the final for the junior rugby championship of the west this afternoon. The boys hope to pull down the lead of three points and bring back the honors to Winnipeg. The team will be without the services of Johnny Laing, their sterling captain and half back, who injured his leg severely in last Saturday's game and is unable to play in today's game.

Sheehan Released.

New York, Nov. 15.—Charles Ebbetts, president of the Brooklyn National League Baseball Club, to-day announced the release of infielder John Sheehan to the Winnipeg club of the Western Canada League.

ASK THAT VETERANS RUN FOR ALDERMEN

Organization Calls on Service
Men's Council to Nominate Men

Three or four returned men, backed by the service men's organizations of the city as candidates for aldermanic honors at the forthcoming election is an idea which was put forward at the Army and Navy Veterans' Association meeting.

A resolution was passed with enthusiasm that the Army and Navy Veterans request the Ex-Service Council to name three or four men to take the nomination. In the event of the men being nominated it is suggested that the whole of the ex-service men's organizations of the city would stand behind the candidates named in a joint effort to secure the seats on the City Council.

One name has already been mentioned as one of those likely to be nominated—H. J. Young, secretary of the Army and Navy Veterans being referred to as one of the men whose bat may be in the ring for the position of alderman.

ELMER PLAYS AGAIN.

Sid Elmer who played on the Foundation septette last season has thrown in his lot with the K. of C. team of Vancouver this year. The red-haired pugnacious sprained his ankle playing baseball for the Foundation nine at Vancouver last summer in the championship series, but the injury is now perfectly well again.

ONLY TWO SUBSTITUTES.

Moose Jaw, Nov. 15.—The seventh annual meeting of the S. A. H. A. was held here this afternoon when it was officially decided to adopt the O. H. A. rules for the coming season. Other important changes were made in the rules and regulations, chief among which was the decision to use only two substitutes in any game during the season. Delegates from all over the province attended, showing the great interest being taken in the game.

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Marty Cross, of New York, souped-out and outfought Ralph Schappert, of Wilkesbarre, in a ten-round bout before the Endicott-Johnson Athletic Association here last night. Frank Schoell, of Buffalo, also easily outpointed Al Murphy, of Scranton.

FIREMAN WAS EASY FOR CLONIE TAIT

Champion Took Seven of Ten Rounds at Moose Jaw
Last Night

Moose Jaw, Nov. 15.—Clonie Tait had little trouble in his bout with Jack Johnson, local fireman, staged as the principal attraction of the Sixtieth Rifles' fight card here last night had the advantage in seven of the ten rounds. Johnson put up a game fight and forced the champion to extend himself to earn the decision, but Tait's experience was too much for him. Tait drew blood in the eighth round, but Johnson came back strong and had Tait's nose bleeding at the end of the ninth. In the tenth round both tried hard for a knockout and Johnson was clearly in better condition when the final gong sounded. Johnson won a slight edge in the third and ninth rounds, the second being even and Tait won the remaining seven. Major Mickey Graham, of Regina, handled the big bout.

LOOKING THINGS OVER

The Representative Captain.

G. C. Grant, of the Wanderers, who has been selected as Victoria representative rugby captain, will also lead the side against the New Zealanders in the Harward Cup League. As outside half he plays a hard, clever game. He shows few brilliant individual flashes, but plays a hard, steady game in every match in which he takes part and has the knack of starting plays which lead to points. He is also popular with all the players, who will follow him anywhere. He spent over two years in Germany as a prisoner of war, but the prison fare apparently has played no havoc with his stamina.

Hackenschmidt Turns Up.

George Hackenschmidt, noted Russian wrestler, who dropped from sight several years ago, has turned up in England. The giant Russian, one of the greatest figures the mat game has ever produced, is said to have settled down at Shoreham-by-the-Sea, England, where he plans to spend the rest of his days. According to the reports, Hackenschmidt and his wife were in Berlin when war broke out and were immediately interned as enemy aliens. Hackenschmidt is well fixed financially, for when he left this country several years ago he was worth at least a million dollars, half of which sum was invested in rock-ribbed English securities.

Will Stake the Title.

Benny Leonard is willing to meet Willie Jackson in a bout for the lightweight crown before Christmas, but Benny wants to weigh 135 pounds eight hours before the mss. Jackson insists on 135 ringside, which makes all the difference in the world. It looks as if Jackson should waive his objection and let the champ have it his way about the weight, as he is getting a royal chance at the title, has nothing to lose and will be certain to grab off a large piece of coin for his end—win, lose or police. A Leonard-Jackson battle would be a whale of a melee and is a far better attraction than the proposed Leonard-Toddler brawl. While it is generally conceded that Leonard would hold Jackson safe, he would know he'd been in a box fight when the thing was over.

An Event For Dundee.

Johnny Dundee's knockout victory last week over Tommy Tuohy was something of an event in the Italian's boxing career. Although Dundee has been a top-notch for seven or eight years, during which he has fought hundreds of bouts, his list of knockouts could be rolled off on the thumb and fingers of one hand before last week's affair. Since 1911 Dundee has stopped the following men: Ty Cobb, one round; Jack White, nine rounds; Young Drummie, two rounds; John O'Leary, nine rounds and Tommy Tuohy, five rounds. Despite his lack of effectiveness Dundee never has been accused of stalling and he is more of a slugger than a fancy boxer. Most of his blows are of the swinging type and he puts all his strength behind each wallop he lets fly.

A Coming Puckchaser.

Will Loughlin, who will again join the Aristocrats, showed up better than any other amateur ever did in his first game. He looked good in every department, having speed, weight and the ability to use them to the advantage of his team. What is more important, he seemed to work in with the team as if he had played with them all the season. Will was certainly an apt pupil and anxious to learn. He stayed in his first sensational overtime game for the entire 97 minutes and 20 seconds, notwithstanding the fact that Lester changed his men with frequent regularity in the third and overtime periods.

GORGE BRIDGE IS ORDERED CLOSED

Government Declares Structure Unsafe and Barricades
Are Put Up

Barricades were placed across the approaches to the Gorge Bridge yesterday, and traffic over the structure is forbidden. This step was taken by the Provincial Government in the interests of the public. After receiving a report from the Government Engineer to the effect that the bridge was in dangerous condition Hon. J.
H. King, Minister of Public Works, decided that it was advisable to close the bridge in order to prevent any accidents. The steel arch is safe enough and it is merely the deck that is in need of re-planking, according to an official statement issued to-day.
The bridge had stood for so long that the wooden portion requires renewing.

The closing of the Gorge Bridge cuts off communication between Esquimalt and Saanich Municipalities and the only way in which points in each of these districts may now be reached is by coming into the city and crossing the Point Ellice bridge.
The municipality of Esquimalt and Saanich have been notified of the Government's action.

The bridge, it is said, is safe enough for light traffic but it is impossible to tell when a heavy truck, such as the one that crashed through Craigflower bridge some time ago, might break through.

The Gorge bridge was built by the Government before the adjacent municipalities were incorporated, but it has never been maintained by the Government, neither does the Government control the roads leading to it.

Now that the Government has closed the bridge, the question arises as to who is responsible for the cost of the necessary repairs. It is claimed that the boundaries of Esquimalt and Saanich Municipalities are fixed at the shore line of the Victoria Arm, over which the Gorge bridge is built.

The Victoria Grand Jury in its presentments at the Spring Assizes, dealt with the Gorge bridge question in the following words: "We visited the Gorge bridge. This we find too narrow for a crush such as there may be at any time, particularly on holidays, such as May 24. In our opinion, for safety to the public, there should be a six foot sidewalk on either side of the bridge for foot passengers, outside the present roadway, as at present there is just room for two cars to pass on the bridge and practically no room for foot traffic. The bridge should also be examined to make sure that it would carry this extra load."

NAVY LEAGUE CHAPTER, I.O.D.E.

In the absence of the regent, Mrs.
David Doug, the vice-regent, Mrs.
Travis took the chair at the meeting of the Navy League Chapter, I. O.
D. E., held in the headquarters in the Jones Building yesterday afternoon.
The chapter voted the sum of $25 towards the purchase of Christmas cheer for soldiers' widows and orphans.

Mrs. A. Thomson reported on the address given here recently by Mrs.
G. H. Smith, the secretary of the National Chapter, on the educational scheme of the Order and Mrs. C. H.
Moore, convener of the sock shower for the men of H.M.S. New Zealand, gave a very gratifying report of the response accorded the appeal, remarking that through the interest of a member of the Navy League Chapter, a contribution of $35 pairs had been sent from Winnipeg to augment the number. Mrs. Plumb reported on the meeting of the Local Council of Women. Mrs. J. Gordon Smith gave a gratifying report on the recent dance given by the Chapter.
The meeting by a standing vote expressed its sympathy and condolence to the regent, Mrs. David Doug, and the secretary, Mrs. Thaw in the death of relatives.

His Death Expected

New Brunswick Man Saved

Mr. Isidore Thomas, of Tilley's Road, Gloucester County, N.B., while expecting death, availed himself of help that was offered at random. Here is part of a letter he wrote to us:

"I beg you to publish my letter,
so that people may know what Gin Pills did for me. My case was very serious. I was so sick everybody expected my death any day.
Finally, on advice from friends, I tried Gin Pills. And in a short time was well again, and soon had gained 20 pounds."

Kidney and bladder troubles, very often, work in secret ways. A bad condition may exist, with only a backache to indicate it. That is why the slightest pains in back or sides should be investigated. These pains, along with sciatic neuralgia, rheumatism, dizziness, constipation, headache, lumbago, highly-colored urine, headache, floating specks before the eyes, gravel, indicate kidney trouble.
A course of Gin Pills, taken at once, will give relief, and prevent the progress of the disease, enabling the organs to right themselves and restore good health. Gin Pills are the sure, safe, quick remedy. Get a box from your druggist or write to: Money refunded if no relief found. Send for

ENGINEER'S CHOICE LEADS TO QUANDARY

Saanich Council Selects J. E. Milne by Majority, But Omits Necessary Motion

J. E. Milne was selected as the new engineer of Saanich, though without the necessary confirmatory resolution, by the Council last evening by a majority of one vote. He received four votes, against three cast for Major J. Cameron Johnstone. One councillor was absent.

Mr. Milne, like all the selected applicants, is a returned soldier, and at present is municipal engineer of Burnaby. Lacking the necessary resolution no appointment was made, and the whole question left over for one week. This issue of the situation did not satisfy some of the members, who pressed for definite action as the necessary sequel to the ballot. The ballot was reached, as above, after Major Cosgrove, of North Vancouver, had withdrawn on the ground of insufficient salary offered.

Candidates Heard.
The Council heard the selected candidates in turn, the applicants answering questions addressed to them by the members of the Council. Major John R. Cosgrove, engineer of the municipality of North Vancouver district; J. Cameron Johnstone, late district engineer for Alberni district (Provincial Government), and J. E. Milne, municipal engineer of Burnaby, were called in order.

Major Cosgrove withdrew, as he asked a larger sum per month than the Council was prepared to pay. When it came to make the appointment only Councillor Dooley was ready to go ahead with the confirmatory resolution, the majority insisting on looking into the issue more carefully. The resolution to make the appointment therefore stood over until the next meeting on Friday.

Engineer Needed.
Councillor Brooks wanted to know whether there was any guarantee that the work for an engineer would be continuous.

The Reeves: "There will be plenty of work. We know we are in need of a man immediately." "I do not think we need have any fear. It will be up to the engineer himself how far the job will last."

None of the selected applicants are B. C. land surveyors, it being explained that the combination of licensed surveyor with civil engineering is not common.

Councillor Henderson wanted some one qualified to sign plans, but it was declared that the qualifications called for by the two professions do not interlace except in a small way.

Mr. Milne's Career.
The prospective municipal engineer has had a lengthy career as an engineer both in Ireland and in British Columbia, coming to Canada thirteen years ago.

He was employed by the County Council of Down, Ireland, in special work, in sewerage disposal, water-works and road contracts. In that capacity he had the preparation of estimates and profiles on construction.

On coming to the Dominion, Mr. Milne was for three years a resident engineer on the Canadian Pacific Railway. Then he became an engineer on the Hudson's Bay Railway. Moving to Regina, he had a thorough experience for two years with water mains and sewerage work in a contracting partnership with W. R. Ross. Then for four years he was with the Saskatchewan Government as engineer in charge of work in Southern Saskatchewan.

Mr. Milne went overseas with the engineering corps, where he obtained his Commission. Since his return he has been municipal engineer of Burnaby. There he has had thorough experience in water and sewer work, and has carried out extensive improvements of a permanent character, including asphalt paving.

Mr. Milne pointed out that he had over 300 miles of road to take care of in the municipality, and so well did the Government value the char-

Mr. Milne answered the questions of the councillors regarding road construction with knowledge and frankness, and undoubtedly created a very favorable impression thereby.

He explained that he desired to leave Burnaby on account of his wife's health. He asked $200 per month.

The other candidates ranged from $225 to $275 per month.

There's a Great Difference Between Home-Made and Baker's Bread

WHILE both seem alike, there's one thing that you know is different—and that's the taste. And, that taste is there for some reason—home-made bread is richer in gluten. Gluten is the nourishing, body-building part of the wheat—of the utmost importance to the welfare of the growing child.

Scientifically tested, baked in our laboratory ovens, ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR is every day proven the richest in gluten. Compared with baker's bread, bread made from ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR is more nourishing and body-building. For the added substance and real "homey" flavor, feed your children home-made bread. ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR is sold by all grocers.

WOODY PROBLEM AGITATES COUNCIL

Just how a large quantity of cordwood happened to get left behind the high fence of the vacant lot at Douglas and Fisguard Streets puzzled the aldermen at their meeting yesterday afternoon.

It appears that the wood was left there just at the time E. C. B. Bagshaw applied to the city for permission for his sons to operate a wood yard there. When Arthur Lineham opposed the opening of a woodyard next to the Fairfield Block, Mr. Bagshaw transferred his yard to the northeast corner of Herald and Store Streets. A permit for this location was passed by the aldermen yesterday.

Then the question of the wood at Douglas and Fisguard Streets came up, as it has been left there without permission from the city. Some of the aldermen proposed to give Mr.

Bagshaw sixty days to move the wood.

"We are not supposed to know that that wood is there," said Alderman Andros, immediately proceeding to get into an altercation with Alderman Patrick, who ended by telling Alderman Andros that "you have a perfect right to be a gentleman while you are here."

"We should notify Mr. Bagshaw that we are alive to what he has been doing," said Alderman Harvey.

There were several motions put up to get rid of the wood that is illegally on the lot, but it was finally decided to say nothing formal about it, but to give Mr. Bagshaw a quiet hint to move it before the police interfere.

NEW BRUNSWICK OFFICERS DISSATISFIED

St. John, N. B., Nov. 15.—New Brunswick officers who as a class have complained bitterly in the past of what they regard as unfair discrimination against natives of the Province, have found another cause of grievances of a similar nature. The military clearance stations were disbanded here several months ago and some of the officers of that staff still are unemployed. In view of this, dissatisfaction was expressed when it was announced yesterday that a clearance station staff would be brought here from Quebec for the winter.

General Meeting of all members of the Foundation Swimming Club, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, Foundation Club House.

EXCHANGE OF COAL NOW IS PROPOSED

Nova Scotia Miners' Scheme For Canada and United States

Winnipeg, Nov. 15.—A local paper carries the following from its Ottawa correspondent:

"While C. A. Magrath, Fuel Controller, is in Washington trying to make arrangements for securing coal supplies for Ontario and Quebec, a curious situation has arisen among the coal mine workers of Nova Scotia, which may exert some influence on the situation in Ontario and Quebec.

An Exchange.
"New England in the past has obtained large supplies of fuel for industrial purposes from Nova Scotia. The miners of Nova Scotia are willing to continue this supply if they are given assurance that it will not be used to help break the strike of the American miners. To make sure of this, they have indicated their willingness to allow just as much coal to go southward into the United States as the United States administration allows to come northward into Ontario and Quebec. This, they believe, will leave the situation in the United States unchanged so far as the strike is concerned, help central Canada and help them to help themselves. Their demands would entail an interchange of statistics between Nova Scotia and Central Canada and as to the imports and exports."

In States.

Washington, Nov. 15.—After a long and acrimonious wrangle to-day, representatives of the coal operators and miners in conference here agreed to take up settlement of wages and labor conditions in the central competitive field after they had failed to agree on considering a national scale as first proposed.

Scale Committee.
Adjourning the general conference, Secretary Wilson then summoned the wage scale committees of the central competitive field to meet at 2.30 p. m. to-day to negotiate a new wage agreement.

Operators from districts outside the central competitive fields were called to meet at the same hour to determine whether the agreement arrived at between the wage scale committees of the central competitive field will be accepted as a basis for the contracts in the outlying districts.

Washington Mines.

Tacoma, Nov. 15.—The coal mines in the local field will reopen Monday, the operators announced to-day. They said the vote of local unions had made it certain that practically all men will be back at work. Six thousand miners were out on strike, and the wage loss for fifteen days is estimated at $500,000.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of Families Swear by Its Prompt Results. Inexpensive, and Saves About $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several essential elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (cough medicine) in each glass. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup. Instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make 16 ounces—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough will stop in hours and light, or may be persistently loose and the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—infamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for colds, influenza, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—What is believed to be vendetta, the ancient feud system of the Mafia or Black Hand Society, is said to be responsible for the stabbing of Salvatore Russo, 419 Clarence Street, Friday morning at the corner of Rideau Street and King Edward Avenue. He now lies in a very serious condition in a hospital, with knife wounds in his body.

Rocco Baris, 211 St. Patrick Street, is named in a warrant held by the police, but he is still at large.

Witness Held.
Giuseppe DeFilippo, 298 Montreal Road, is held by the police as a material witness. He is alleged to have been on the scene and in company with Baris at the time of the stabbing.

This morning the hospital authorities reported Russo's condition unchanged. The most serious wound is one an inch below the heart and penetrated by the knife. Little hope is held out for his recovery.

Mrs. Russo remained at her husband's bedside all day yesterday and presented a pathetic figure as she told of the attempt to kill her husband, which she staunchly declares was the work of the Black Hand.

Burgomaster of Mons Cables Congratulation on Armistice Day

General Sir Arthur Currie to-day received the following cable from the Burgomaster of Mons, Belgium, in celebration of the first anniversary of the Armistice:

"Commemorating the first anniversary of the liberation of the city of Mons by your valiant troops, the whole population salutes your glorious army, and its illustrious chief."

The message is signed by Jean Lessarts, the Burgomaster.

Hon. C. J. Doherty, Acting Premier, has received a similar cablegram from the Burgomaster of Mons.

ARTHUR W. HUGHES WAS FOUND DEAD

Former Victoria Letter-Carrier Committed Suicide in Vancouver

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—Suspended by a rope, one end of which had been formed into a running noose and placed around the neck, while the other had been attached to a clothes hook behind the door of a room at 612 Pender Street West, the lifeless body of Arthur Wilson Hughes was found this forenoon.

Hughes, who was about thirty-five years of age, was a returned soldier. For some time prior to September 30 he had been engaged as temporary letter-carrier in Victoria, but terminated his work on that date.

WESTERN GRAIN MAY BE SHIPPED VIA THE PACIFIC

Winnipeg, Nov. 15.—As a result of improvements to Vancouver harbor, expected to be commenced early in the new year, it is thought possible that grain grown on the Canadian prairies from Moose Jaw to the foothills may move west next year to its foreign markets by way of the port of Vancouver and the Panama Canal, instead of through Winnipeg to the Great Lakes as at present. The project was discussed yesterday by Lieut.-Col. G. H. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the Vancouver Harbor Commission, and his colleagues, Major A. R. Mackenzie and S. McClay, who later left for Ottawa to confer with Government authorities as to expenditure of $5,000,000 voted for Vancouver harbor improvements.

Details are still to be arranged, but the members of the party expressed the hope that construction work would be begun in January. A wharf about 1,250 feet long, with two-story sheds of reinforced concrete equipped with modern loading devices, is included in the plans.

Preparing For International Convention to Be Held in Portland

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—Preparations for the International Kiwanis Convention that is to be held at Portland, Ore., on January 15, 16 and 17, are the principal business before the 1919 Convention of Kiwanis Clubs of the Pacific Northwest district, which opened here this morning.

About thirty delegates are in attendance from Astoria, Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver. The convention is the second one held in this district.

Proceedings were opened at 10.15 by District Governor Guy E. Kelly, of Tacoma, and an address of welcome was extended by G. Roy Long, president of the Vancouver Kiwanis Club.

Following the district governor's annual address, the delegates, accompanied by 150 members of the Vancouver Kiwanis Club, left by automobile for New Westminster, to be entertained by the newly organized Kiwanis Club of that city. Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, is to address the luncheon.

The convention will re-assemble at 8 o'clock this afternoon, and will close to-night with a banquet, a musical programme and dancing.

THE MARKET POSITION OF SILVER.

To the Editor:—You refer to-day to my views rather cursorily expressed in the London Standard, and to the position of the silver market. That position is so important and even critical that I wish, to the extent of my present knowledge, to supplement my statement.

The financial world, did it know it, is in the throes of a veritable silver famine. If we are not able to feed the white metal to pay Asiatic trade balances (and Asia's demand is voracious) then Asia, and especially India, will drain our Western gold reserves to our utter undoing. Since England tampered with the Indian Silver Standard in 1893 and closed the mints of India against that metal, the country has, in the twenty-six years, deprived us and the world of trade of over 250 million sovereigns.

Last winter I took great pains, and also whatever expert evidence was available in London, to frame a Silver Budget for the years at hand. If any reader interested would know more, I refer him to my paper in The Nineteenth Century Review for February last. The following short table is adequate for general purposes:

	Annual Demand Ounces.
New silver to liquidate India's annual balance of trade ($350,000,000), or two rупees per head	250,000,000
New silver for the requirements of the Nigerian West Africa, "German" and British East Africa	100,000,000
World's silverminers' demand based on the pre-war scale	120,000,000
For subsidiary currencies, European and American	70,000,000
For China, Hongkong, Malaysia and the Philippines	50,000,000
For the "Bland" dollars (Pittman Act) for, say, eight years	30,000,000
Total demand	620,000,000
Total supply—present world production from the mines	150,000,000
Estimated U. S. Direct Mint	157,000,000
World's annual deficit, say	463,000,000

Happily for the world, this great Province of Canada, with its undeveloped silver deposits which, with silver at its present price, say $1.20 an ounce, will pay good returns on capital invested. The Province of Canada is urgently needed if England and Europe are ever to resume specie payments.

The criminal folly of modern legislation in demoralizing the beautiful metal during the last half century has indeed invited the Nemesis from which the world must now suffer in the paralysis of its exchanges.

INCOMPLETE FIGURES ON LOAN ISSUED

Minister of Finance Is Well Satisfied With Present
Progress

Toronto, Nov. 15.—Confidence that the half-billion mark will have been passed in the Victory Loan campaign when subscriptions close to-night, is expressed at loan headquarters here. The latest returns give the total for all Canada as $478,795,778, but this does not cover any of the provinces to date, Ontario's figures being up to only Friday night, Quebec up to Thursday night and the rest of the country up to Wednesday night.

The Dominion Special Subscriptions Committee points out also that many firms that had subscribed early in the campaign have made further subscriptions. Yesterday, for instance, the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company, which early in the campaign subscribed $5,000,000, yesterday added a further $1,000,000.

The number of places in Ontario which have added the Prince of Wales' honor fund to their list is now 206, sixty-three having been added Friday.

Three more units have passed the $1,000,000 mark. These are Prince Edward, $1,111,000; East York, $1,010,500, and Carleton, with $1,000,500. Western Canada Flour Mills have subscribed $500,000.

Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, arrived in Toronto from the west to-day, much gratified with the success of the loan.

He will remain until Monday night, when he will officially announce the result of the campaign at a mass meeting in Massey Hall.

At headquarters no figures were available at noon to-day. It was stated that an estimate of the Dominion total would be given out Sunday evening. The totals for Toronto and Ontario will not be announced until the Monday night sitting.

The women of Toronto, in their special campaign have secured over $2,000,000 worth of bonds.

SLIGHT CHANGE IN COST OF LIVING

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—A slight downward trend in the cost of living in Canada is reported by The Labor Gazette. Although the retail price of meats and potatoes showed a decline, there were advances in eggs, milk, butter, rolled oats, rice, evaporated apples and sugar. The average cost of a budget of staple foodstuffs in some sixty cities was $14.33 at the middle of September and $14.45 at the middle of August, as compared with $7.54 in September, 1914.

C. P. R. TO GIVE FINAL DECISION ON BRIDGE MONDAY

"Would Rather Give Way Than Break Negotiations," Says Railway Solicitor

CITY FIRM AGAINST MONOPOLY CLAUSE

The fate of the Johnson Street Bridge will be known Monday.

Members of the City Council informed J. E. McMullen, solicitor for the C. P. R., and H. E. Beasley, general superintendent of the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway, that there could be no compromise at all over the proposed clause in the agreement giving the C. P. R. monopoly rights over the railway part of the bridge. This is the only clause that has been holding the city and the company apart.

When the railway men learned that this was the unwavering attitude of the city, Mr. McMullen proposed a clause by which, if any railway company should in the future lay tracks across the highway part of the bridge, the city should block any efforts of railways using these tracks to connect with the tracks of the C. P. R. on either side of the bridge or to make use of the terminal facilities of the C. P. R. on Store Street.

Only Ask Moral Support.

"By this clause the city is left in control of the highway portion of the bridge," said Mr. McMullen. "All we suggest is that you support us in opposing any claims of other companies to use our terminals. Suppose the C. P. R. Electric Railway should extend its tracks across the bridge to connect with the city system. All we ask is that when the company sends its cars across we should not be obliged to handle them. Our own terminals are congested, and we want to keep other cars from our tracks."

"We are most desirous of reaching an agreement with the city and the last thing we want to do is to fall down in these negotiations. At this stage, I don't think in this clause you are giving away anything. You are left in absolute control of the highway portion of the bridge."

"Our state of mind is that we would rather give way than break down negotiations."

"The C. P. R. needs no moral support to maintain its rights," said Alderman Patrick. "We should be left entirely out of that. Our big difficulty is that we have to put this before the people. I am satisfied that we could not pass any by-law that would give way to the company."

Railway Board Would Decide. Aldermen Johns and Fullerton said that the Railway Commission would deal with any such problem and would be able to over-rule any such agreement if it was thought advisable in the interests of the community.

"Do I understand then that is the mind of the Council that there is no way in which that clause can be modified?" asked Mr. McMullen. "Do I understand that if that clause is dropped the agreement breaks down?"

"We haven't been considering this bridge for the last six or seven years for fun," said Alderman Sargent. "By the persistence of the company in that clause you have forced us to look ahead for something else."

"While that clause remains it is hopeless to expect an agreement," said Mayor Porter.

Final Answer Monday.

Mr. McMullen then announced that the C. P. R. would inform the city by Monday whether it would accept the whole bridge agreement as it stands without the clause.

Mr. McMullen then discussed with the aldermen one or two details of the agreement which are not clear, chiefly in connection with the approaches to the bridge on the Reserve side. These details were taken up with Richard Marpole, executive officer of the company, some time ago.

"Whatever Mr. Marpole consented to we will stand by," said Mr. McMullen.

"I think we are backing down on some things we have already done," Mayor Porter said to the aldermen when Mr. McMullen and Mr. Beasley withdrew.

"There is not much time to waste," said Alderman Patrick. "We have got to draft this right off next week and get ready for the election."

"We must not put any more points in dispute," the Mayor added.

WANTS ALDERMANIC BATH SCHEME TO SUPERSEDE PRIVATE

Development of Property at Rear of Empress Proposed By Alderman Harvey

No sooner had the aldermen yesterday afternoon somewhat coldly received the swimming bath project of W. F. Best and J. S. Brandon, his solicitor, than Alderman John Harvey made public his plan for a huge stadium on the city's vacant property at the rear of the Empress Hotel.

Alderman Harvey had a long consultation with Mayor Porter Thursday afternoon. When it was learned that other aldermen were preparing to come forward with other swimming bath and stadium proposals and that an outside sports promoter was considering something, Alderman Harvey completed his draft and made it public. His proposals will be considered by the City Council Monday night when he will address the aldermen on the need for such an institution as he is fathering.

The alderman proposes that the work be started before the end of the year and that "the present council recommend to the council for the year 1920 that they place a sufficient sum in the estimates so that the work may be completed."

Wants Work Begun at Once.

In his resolution the alderman proposes that the city engineer be instructed at once to lay out the land at back of the Empress Hotel into a park by grading the ground and seeding it and making the necessary water connections, erecting a bandstand thereon and transplanting and utilizing the shrubs and trees owned by the city that are now in the nursery at Beacon Hill Park.

The alderman in his resolution points out to the council that although the city is spending money to attract people here, it is "annually a heavy loser for the lack of attractions and facilities for the entertainment and amusement of her own people and neighboring residents and visitors."

Alderman Harvey says that the idle property at the rear of the Empress can be converted into playing fields for baseball, cricket, football, hockey and arrangements made for later development including salt water swimming baths, art galleries and technical schools.

Wants City Scheme. Mr. Best and Mr. Brandon explained to the aldermen their proposal for a swimming bath on the vacant park property at the end of Government Street near Beacon Hill Park. They said that a company had been formed to erect a pavilion and swimming bath on property 300 feet square and asked the city for a lease at $1.00 a year for twenty years.

"We want to know if this is a bona fide concern," said Alderman Patrick. "We have yet to see a list of the shareholders."

"I refuse to subscribe unless they know whether the land is available," replied Mr. Best. "We propose to put up a satisfactory building. Our new plans propose more accommodation for spectators."

"I would rather see us come to a scheme of our own," said Alderman John Harvey.

"We should find out from our solicitor if we have the power to grant this," said Alderman Andrews. "There would have to be a by-law approved by the people."

Some of the aldermen declared that a number of people living on Dallas Road were protesting against the proposal to build a bath house at their front doors and thus obstruct their view. Mr. Best replied that the Old Dutch Cleanser

—Is great for cleaning plain or painted wooden floors, oil-cloth or linoleum. It is more economical than anything else and does better work. Use Old Dutch for cleaning everything throughout the house.

bath houses would be kept at least fifty feet from the street.

The aldermen instructed Mr. Best to put his application in writing.

Entertainment at Army Hut.—Over three hundred ex-service men and their friends enjoyed a pleasant evening at the K. of C. Army Hut last night on the occasion of their weekly five hundred party and dance. Cards were started shortly after 8 o'clock, and many were unfortunate in not been able to get a table, as all of them were filled up before play was started. M. Steele handled the military five hundred in his usual mastery way. The prize winners were Miss D. King, Miss Cartwright, A. Mable and J. A. Driscoll. At the conclusion of the game the reception hall was cleared of all tables and dancing continued until midnight, the floor space being very crowded. Messrs. Fred and Herbert Broughton were on hand to volunteer for the dance music, which was of a very high order, while Mrs. Roberts also assisted. As these affairs are now held weekly, the next one will take place on Friday, November 21.
